PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE SPEAKS TO COMMONS IN JUSTIFICATION OF HIS COURSE AT CONFERENCE

Declares That All Government's Election Pledges Are Incorporated in Terms Agreed Upon by Representatives of Powers for Submission to Germans.

MAY BE PRESENTED BEFORE MANY DAYS

Large Number of Difficult Problems Have Been Dealt With by Conference—Armed Intervention in Russia Is Not Proposed, But Anti-Bolshevik Parties Supported.

LONDON, April 16.—No intervention in Russia, no recognition of the Bolsheviki, and the fulfillment of his election pledges, including those relating to indemnity from the enemy powers and punishment of the former Emperor. These were the outstanding features of the report which Premier Lloyd George brought from Paris and delivered to the House of Commons today.

Every member was in his seat, and the galleries were packed with distinguished visitors, among them the Prince of Wales. When the Premier entered the chamber there was great cheering from the crowd. He appeared fresh and in buoyant spirits, pausing at times to make humorous remarks to various members.

In the main, though, the mood of the Premier was serious, and the audience listened with profound attention through his lengthy speech, which lasted almost an hour and a half. The Laborites vigorously applauded the Premier's announcement of non-intervention in Russia and non-recognition of Bolshevism, but maintained silence while the statement was made that the Allies would continue to aid friendly elements which were fighting Bolshevism.

At the conclusion of the Premier's speech, when members and those in the galleries were pouring out in quest of belated luncheons, William Adamson, leader of the Labor opposition in the House, rose and characterized the speech of the Premier as eloquent, but not entirely satisfactory.

Mr. Adamson's comment summed up the opinion of others among his auditors, and numerous elements among the public, whom the newspapers for the last few days had prepared for illuminating revelations in the speech concerning the peace terms formulated.

Interest in the debate rapidly declined, the members flocking into the lobbies to discuss the Premier's speech.

John R. Clynes, Labor member and former food controller, declared that it would be better to kill Bolshevism by feeding than by fighting. He complained that it would be humiliating to receive news of the peace terms from Germany, and said that apparently Mr. Lloyd George would come to Parliament for a vote of confidence after the settlement of terms in which Parliament had no part.

At 2.30 o'clock a member called attention to the absence of a quorum. The doors were opened, but instead of members entering to make a quorum, many of those present walked out, and the House was counted out, being adjourned for the Easter recess until April 29.

Demands Formulated

The Allied representatives in Paris have arrived at a complete understanding on the great fundamental questions that would effect peace with Germany, Premier Lloyd George declared. The Allies had formulated their demands, and he hoped that by the end of next week they would be presented.

The Premier made a vigorous attack upon those who had "attempted to sow dissension, distrust and suspicion" between the nations whose "cordiality and goodwill toward each other was essential." He could not conceive of a worse crime, he declared, at a time when nothing could save the world but keeping the nations together.

"It is not true that the United States and Europe have been at variance," Mr. Lloyd George declared, adding that no one could have treated more sympathetically the peculiar problems and special susceptibilities of Europe than President Wilson. The Premier deprecated attempts to create dissensions among the delegates.

What Is Due to France

The delegates, said Mr. Lloyd George, had never forgotten what France had gone through, and they had not forgotten to what she was entitled—not merely security against repetition of the German attack, but to feel a sense of security against it. The conference had come to an unanimous conclusion on all the questions before it, including a decision not to publish the peace terms before they were discussed with the enemy. It would be a first-class blunder, any premature publication, he considered, could only serve to encourage the resistance of the enemy.

Mr. Lloyd George said the situation was "still full of perils for all countries." He pleaded that "those who are trying to do their best be let alone."

"No conference in history, said the Premier, had been faced with problems of such variety, complexity, magnitude and gravity. The congress of Vienna, which was the nearest approach to it, took eleven months for its work, but that congress, Mr. Lloyd George pointed out, sank into insignificance as compared with what had been settled by this conference.

League Saves Time

Further referring to the world-wide extent of the war the Premier said that 21 states had sprung into existence, some of them independent, some semi-independent and some that might be called states and although their boundaries might not be declared some indication of them must be given.

In reference to peace deliberations, Mr. Lloyd George said the conference might have taken more time but for the fact that it was setting up a machinery capable of re-adjusting and correcting possible mistakes.

"And that is why the League of Nations, instead of wasting time saved time," he added.

The conference had to shorten its labors, continued the Premier, because while it was trying to build, in many lands the foundation of society was tumbling into the dust. No body of men worked harder or in better harmony than the peace conferees, he announced, and doubted whether any body of men ever worked under greater difficulties.

"Stones were clattering on the roof and crashing through the windows, and wild men were screaming through the keyhole while enormous issues depended upon them which required calm deliberation," the Premier said.

He asked for the opportunity for such deliberation for the rest of the journey, which was not at an end.

Had Expected Attack

The Premier said his first impulse when he returned to England from France was to await the much-advertised criticisms of him, but inquiries had shown that these were not forthcoming. The reason assigned was he was told, that he must not expect criticism until the House was informed what the peace delegates were doing.

The Premier said he should not have

ALBANIA DESIRES FULL INDEPENDENCE

PARIS, April 16.—The members of the Albanian provisional government delegation have addressed to the president of the peace conference a letter asking for the confirmation of the complete independence of Albania.

Cancellation of secret treaties regarding that country, rectification of the frontiers between Albania and other Balkan states according to ethnic principles, and the naming of a power to supervise the Government as a mandatory are also asked for.

Before sending the letter the Albania delegates presented their case to the American delegates. M. Koritza later said that the Americans were favorably disposed. He pointed out that no armed force was required; nothing but counsel and sympathetic supervision was wanted.

M. Koritza's impression was that the delegates would take the proposition under serious consideration.

WEIMAR MAKES PREPARATIONS

Committee Chosen for Paris Negotiations—Foreign Minister Deprecates Intrigues in Connection With Peace.

BERLIN, April 16.—The special committee on peace negotiations named by the German national assembly at Weimar will include President Fehrenbach and three vice-presidents of the assembly. The other members will be twenty-eight delegates to the assembly, representing all parties, and including two women socialists.

COPENHAGEN, April 16.—Count von Brocknorff-Rantzau, German Foreign Minister, quoted by the correspondent of the Vienna Neue Freie Press, deprecates another attack "to take advantage of dissensions between the Entente Powers and play off one against the other."

He declares that such would be a "foolish undertaking," adding:

"I think it more dignified for the peace delegates of one nation of 70,000,000 frankly and honestly to endeavor to convince the Entente of the justice of all we are striving for, than by petty intrigues to fill the political atmosphere again with explosive material. There are so many common interests among all taking part in the peace negotiations that with a certain amount of good will there remains a basis for an honorable understanding."

Repatriation of Canadians

LONDON, April 16.—(Reuter's)—Sir Edward Kemp announces that by the end of April one-half of the Canadian troops will have been repatriated, amounting to about 139,000 men of the troops who were overseas when the armistice was signed. The second division will embark in May and by the end of July most of the troops will be back in Canada.

Railway Strike Talked of

HALIFAX, April 16.—Mr. M. M. Maclean, grand secretary of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, gave out a statement this morning predicting a general strike throughout the Canadian National Railway system unless the Department of Labor, which had been appealed to today in the matter, induces the management to come to terms with the 7,000 men involved.

BELGIUM DECLINES TO TRY EX-KAISER

Delegates at Peace Conference Say Request Has Not Been Made, But Would Be Refused—Any Action on This Line Should Be Taken by Commission of Powers.

PARIS, April 16.—The Belgian peace conference delegates today informed the correspondent that Belgium had not been officially requested by the Council of Four to bring the former German Emperor to trial, and that the Belgian Government would feel obliged to decline to take the step even if there were any request for such action.

The Belgian delegates hold that any action should be taken by a commission representing the associated powers. The official Belgian view, it was said, is that the former emperor cannot be arraigned for declaring war or violating the neutrality of Belgium, or for any act preceding or coincident with the declaration of war.

After pointing out that there is no tribunal competent to hear such charges against the former emperor, and no provision of international law covering such cases, the delegates said that Belgium expects that persons guilty of acts punishable under the criminal code of any of the belligerent powers will be placed on trial, as the fact that theft, murder and other crimes were committed during war does not relieve the criminal of responsibility.

"If the commission desires to arraign General Baron von Manteuffel for the sacking of Louvain, General von Schroeder for the murder of Captain Fryatt and General von Saubarsweig for the execution of Miss Edith Cavell, all the necessary documents will be forthcoming," said the general secretary of the delegation.

"But Belgium does not seek revenge. It wants only justice. It would be small satisfaction to lock up the Kaiser for a few months in the Saint Gille prison, and those who have reported that such revenge has been offered Belgium as a solace for her wrongs have sadly misunderstood the Belgian character if they thought it would be acceptable.

"The only case in which the personal responsibility of the Emperor for a criminal act committed in Belgium could be established beyond doubt is in the atrocities attending the deportations of civilians and compelling them to do forced labor in Germany. In this case the responsibility is unquestioned."

MUNICH BATTLE STILL RAGES

Casualties in Contest for Central Railway Station Are Reported to Number One Hundred and Fifty.

COMPLETE ANARCHY REIGNS IN CITY

Workers in Berlin and Bremen Declare General Strikes—Government Troops Have Recaptured Magdeburg.

BERLIN, April 16.—It is reported in the fighting around the railway station at Munich there have been a hundred and fifty casualties. More troops have been sent there from Nuremburg, and the whole country on each side of the Augsburg-Munich railway has been converted into an armed camp. It is expected that the troops will make a converging attack upon Munich.

LONDON, April 16.—The negotiations between employers and employees in various industries in Berlin with reference to increased pay and the right of employees to have a voice in the questions of management, have failed, according to a wireless message received from that city. The employees have therefore decided on a general strike, to begin today, the industries necessary to the existence of the community being interested.

BREMEN, April 16.—A general strike has been proclaimed. It is effective in most of the large works and on the tramways. The gas and electric lighting systems, however, are operating.

LONDON, April 16.—Complete anarchy reigns in Munich, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. All work has ceased, trains are not running and robbers are looting houses and threatening the banks, the dispatch states. The first infantry regiment is said to have joined the Spartacans.

COPENHAGEN, April 16.—German Government troops occupied the entire town of Magdeburg on Tuesday, according to a Weimar dispatch to The Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin. It is reported there was heavy fighting, with many casualties on both sides.

G. W. V. A. HEARS OF DISLOYALISTS

Machinations of the German Preachers and Editors Told at Manitoba Convention—Soldiers' Interests Discussed

WINNIPEG, April 16. — Brigadier-General H. D. B. Ketchen, C.B., C.M.G., opened the session of the provincial G. W. V. A. convention this morning. He emphasized the duties of the returned soldier in connection with the future of the country, that the men must be united and guided by only the best men.

The veterans decided to seek the right of way for the proposed drive for funds for a memorial for those slain in the war, and a committee was appointed to dissuade other organizations from inaugurating drives until the veterans, with the aid of the Provincial Government, place before the general public a plea for funds to erect memorial temples in the province.

There are now about thirty-three branches of the association in Manitoba.

Five hundred German - speaking preachers are known to be living in Canada, with many others unregistered, according to information given by delegates to the Manitoba G. W. V. A. convention this afternoon.

It was also stated that nearly one hundred of these preachers, many of them Mennonites, lived in Manitoba, and 200 in Saskatchewan. These, with ninety per cent of the editors of German language papers, were the rallying points for disloyalty and difficulty in assimilating the foreigners, it was claimed. It was further stated that in all three provinces the departments of education were hoodwinked by the German language teachers, as, while officially many of the schools were open only half the year, the German pastors and teachers continued the sessions for the remainder of the year, teaching in the German language. Incensed by these revelations, the convention appointed a committee with instructions to draft a resolution for submission to the convention tomorrow embodying constructive demands on the teaching of English in the schools during the entire year and the internment and subsequent deportation of all these disloyal leaders.

The convention committee reported that within two months 33 branches had been organized where only eight existed before. Further, 23 more branches were in process of formation, and preliminary work had been done on 41 other districts. Manitoba now has 14,000 members.

At the opening of the afternoon session, discussion took place on "homes and institutions for incapacitated soldiers." It was felt that the unfortunate men affected with shell-shock should be segregated from civilians in insane asylums and put into homes with returned doctors and soldiers to look after them.

PLOT IS FOUND AT ARCHANGEL

ARCHANGEL, April 16.—Seventeen persons have been executed on charges of espionage, conspiracy and treason as a result of the discovery late in March of an organization in Archangel which planned to deliver the town and garrison to the Bolsheviki, it is announced in the official Russian newspaper published here.

GERMAN ARMY MEN OBJECT TO SMALL PAY

BERNE, April 16.—Soldiers and non-commissioned officers in the German army are protesting against the order placing the rate of pay on the peace time basis, and manifested their intention of going on strike if the order is not rescinded.

The Berlin correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung says the soldiers claim that the peace time pay is not sufficient, as in view of the high cost of food.

They have placed their claims before the high command, which has sent them to the cabinet at Weimar.

OFFER OBJECTION TO RELIEF PLAN

Commission of Russians in Paris Say Proposal of Powers Will Play Into Hands of Soviet Government.

PARIS, April 16.—The revictualling plan for Russia is not acceptable to Bakhmeteff, Sazanoff, Lvoff and other Russians forming the commission representing the Koltchak and Denikine governments, who regard it as a recognition of the Bolshevik Government and as giving the Bolsheviki authority to spend money from the Russian treasury, but the members of the economic council took the position that those of the better class in Russia, who are being starved by the Bolsheviki, must not be allowed to die, as they are necessary for the regeneration of that country.

The various political objections to sending food to Petrograd and Moscow have gradually been weakening recently, and the members of the supreme economic council take the position that the millions of Russians about to starve must be fed on humane grounds, regardless of political considerations. This position has been strengthened by the general disposition of the Entente powers and the United States to send more troops into Russia.

RETURNED SOLDIERS DO RAILWAY WORK

VANCOUVER, April 16.—The C. P. R. has arranged with the Khaki Labor Union to send about 40 men to work at the Kicking Horse canyon, repairing the damage to the cribbing caused by the high water of last year and to prevent damage from the same source this year. The company is furnishing the party with living and dining cars, and wages will be at the rate of 43 cents an hour.

Officials of the railway say that they will watch the work with interest, as this will be the first job on the road to be handled exclusively by returned soldiers. Should it be successful, more employment will likely be offered to parties entirely composed of veterans.

COUNCILS OF PARIS SETTLE QUESTIONS

Meeting of Delegates of Eighteen Powers Is Held to Consider Various Points — Impression That All Will Join in Invitation to Germany's Representatives.

REPORT THAT HELIGOLAND IS TO BE DISMANTLED

Military Occupation of Left Bank of Rhine to Continue for Fifteen Years—Difficult Problems Presented by Turkish Empire—Belgium's Demand for Territory.

PARIS, April 16.—The meeting of the delegates of the eighteen powers this afternoon was presided over by M. Clemenceau, who communicated to them the date on which the Germans would be invited to be at Versailles.

One question considered was whether the invitation should be issued in the name of the Council of Four or in the name of all the Allied and Associated Powers represented at the Peace Conference. The impression prevailing after the meeting was that all should join in the invitation.

The Council of Ten met after the meeting of the delegates of the eighteen powers and considered the procedure to be adopted at Versailles and also a number of collateral phases of the peace treaty that had been referred to the foreign ministers.

The council was held at the Foreign Office on the call of the Council of Four. The foreign ministers reported that various articles of the treaty had been put into the hands of the drafting committee. The remaining articles are to be disposed of tomorrow.

Two questions, one involving a slight addition to the military terms and another concerning the payment of Allied soldiers in the occupied territory, were referred to the Supreme War Council.

The Council of Four decided yesterday that the Schleswig-Holstein question would be settled in accordance with the conclusions of the territorial commission, which recommended that the matter should be adjusted by a referendum, arrangements being made to insure the impartiality of the conditions under which it is held.

LONDON, April 16.—The Council of Four, says Reuter's Paris correspondent, has decided that Heligoland shall be dismantled and as far as possible destroyed.

Various Questions

PARIS, April 16.—The negotiations between the representatives of the Allied and Associated governments virtually were completed Tuesday, the Echo de Paris says it learns from an authoritative source. The paper adds that at no time has the understanding between France and the United States been closer, and that the French Government is completely satisfied with the attitude of President Wilson. The Gaulois says that the final agreement on the frontiers between Jugo-Slavia and Italy will be incorporated in the preliminary peace treaty with Germany.

The Council of Four decided definitely that military occupation of the left bank of the Rhine shall continue for 15 years, the newspaper says. At first inter-Allied forces will be used, but they will be withdrawn progressively in proportion as Germany meets her financial obligations and be replaced by French and Belgian soldiers.

The Journal says that the central territorial committee of the Peace Conference has decided the Teschen problem in favor of Bohemia as against Poland.

Belgium's Demand

PARIS, April 16.—The Council of Four met this morning and took up the request of Belgium for a revision of the treaty of 1834 and Belgium's demand for the annexation of Malmedy, in the Rhine provinces of Prussia, southwest of Aix-la-Chapelle, a small section of No Man's Land the disposition of which was left undecided at the Vienna congress. It lies between the Belgian province of Liege and the Prussian Rhine provinces. Until the outbreak of the war this section enjoyed the unique position of being without either a government or national allegiance. Its residents served in no army, paid no taxes, and had no such modern institutions as railroads, posts and telegraphs, depending on such accommodations as were provided by adjacent countries. The only government consisted of municipal administration.

PARIS, April 16.—The Entente delegates to the peace conference believe Germany will require at least one week after receiving the peace treaty before it can be digested and an answer prepared, and also that the delegates will need about four days for travel between Berlin and Versailles and return. Consequently they express the opinion that it is hardly likely that Germany's answer will be available before May 6.

Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Bulgaria, probably will be summoned to Versailles a fortnight after Germany to consider their peace treaties, which temporarily are overshadowed by the German negotiations.

There is the greatest uncertainty concerning the disposition of the Turkish Empire. The Entente apparently is anxious to have the United States look after Armenia and Cilicia as a mandatory, but the American disposition towards this proposal has not been indicated clearly. The future of Constantinople has not been determined, although some of the American delegates would prefer to have the United States take charge of it rather than of undeveloped territory and convert it into a model city with modern docks and ideal sanitation.

The British, French and Italians apparently are willing to have the United States take over Constantinople, as this would avoid disputes that might result from European jealousies.

The British have about 150,000 troops in the Turkish Empire now, while the French have only 1,500 there. The desirability now is being discussed of having a separate commission from each of the five big countries go into the Orient and investigate Syria, Palestine and Armenia, rather than have joint commissions do this work.

The Allied Governments, according to the Tempe, apparently have decided not to wait beyond May 15 for a definite answer from Germany as to whether she will sign or refuse to sign the peace treaty.

Local Federal Member Arrived Here Yesterday

Dr. Tolmie Discourses on Matters Affecting Returned Soldiers and General Business Interests of British Columbia—Steamship Line May Be Established to Atlantic Ports.

Dr. S. F. Tolmie, M.P., who reached the city yesterday afternoon to spend a few days of the Easter holiday season with his family here, in the course of an interview granted to the Colonist shortly after his arrival outlined the progress made in connection with some of the Victoria interests which he is advancing at Ottawa and reported regarding some of the effective Government measures which are likely to go into force in the near future.

One of the first subjects brought up for discussion is one which has received much attention from the various returned soldiers' organizations in this part of Canada, viz., fishing licences. Every one of the British Columbia members at Ottawa, stated Dr. Tolmie, had been interesting himself in getting fishing licences for the men who had come back to Canada after serving in the army overseas. Just on the eve of Dr. Tolmie's departure West, Mr. J. H. Cunningham, Chief Inspector of Fisheries in British Columbia, reached the Dominion capital to confer with the representative of the Fisheries Department there; three meetings with the B.C. members had been held prior to Mr. Cunningham's arrival, and there was to have been a fourth meeting last Saturday afternoon which he was to attend. These conferences between the Parliamentary representatives from this Province and the Fisheries Department at Ottawa were primarily for the purpose of arranging means whereby the returned soldiers would be able to get a fair proportion of the fishing licences issued, thus enabling those of the men who wished to follow this occupation to do so with the least possible inconvenience.

Hindus' Wives

The Oriental immigration problem as it is understood by British Columbia is hardly comprehended by the people or legislators of Eastern Canada, Dr. Tolmie states. In the matter of permitting the entry to Canada of the wives of Hindus, he recalled that this was a privilege which the Hindu had enjoyed since 1913. Again last year the subject of admitting the wives of Hindus already in this country, under certain restrictions, was discussed by Sir Robert Borden and other Canadian representatives at the Imperial Conference held in London. Subsequently, in December last, an Order-in-Council covering the ground to this effect was passed, the understanding being that immigration would be limited. The British Columbia members are very much awake to the importance of the subject, and the matter is to be taken up by them in conference, with Mr Calder, the Minister of Immigration, at a conference to be held at an early date. Already, reports Dr. Tolmie, several meetings with Mr. Calder have been held, but at the forthcoming conference it is hoped to meet a representative group from the Executive Council. "It is difficult to make Eastern representatives understand the situation in British Columbia," he pointed out. "Their attitude is one of sympathy for the Asiatic immigrant. They can look at the statistics, showing that such and PARIS, April 16.—An agreement was reached today by the associated powers to send food to Russia under neutral control, but the French representatives made several reservations, which will be considered tomorrow. It seems likely, however, that the objections will be overcome and that the relief work will be pressed rapidly.

The agreement stipulates that the Bolsheviki must cease hostilities.

SAY CRUCIFIXION STORY INVENTED

Germans Object to Lecture Showing Savage Ill-Treatment of Canadian Soldiers—Evidence of Observers.

LONDON, April 16.—The German Foreign Office recently complained of a picture appearing in the Canadian war paintings exhibition depicting the crucifixion of Canadian soldiers by Germans and entitled "Canada's Golgotha."

The German Foreign Office claimed that the Canadian Government had lent its sanction to "an invented outrage."

The correspondent of the Canadian Associated Press is informed by the Overseas Ministry that the work in question was executed by Captain Derwent Wood, associate of the Royal Academy, on his own initiative. He is not a Canadian citizen, and does not hold a Canadian commission.

Although the Canadian Government has not yet signified its acceptance of this work for any national purpose, certain investigations have been made concerning the truth of the incident which the picture purports to illustrate and a considerable amount of evidence on the point has already been collected. There are sworn statements by soldiers of the best character serving in the Canadian and Imperial armies, who were unknown to each other, and between whom there was no possibility of collusion, the effect of which is identical, that on or about April 13, 1915, in passing along a road near St. Julien, Belgium, they saw a soldier pinned to a barn door by bayonets through the hands and wrists, and that this soldier wore a uniform and identification badges which led them to believe that he was a Canadian soldier.

ENRAGED CHINESE MASSACRE GERMANS

VANCOUVER, April 16.—Sergt. M. McSpadden, son of Col. George McSpadden, was one of the arrivals in the large party from the Megantic who reached the city Tuesday evening. He enlisted with the 121st Western Irish Battalion nearly three years ago, and was transferred to the mechanical transport section. He believes that in travelling about 60,000 miles over the roads on France on transport work he has set up an enviable record.

Sergt. McSpadden tells of an interesting event which happened at Calais some time ago.

The Germans carried out a bombing raid on the camp where a great number of Chinese laborers were quartered. The Orientals became greatly agitated during the attack, and when the most dangerous part was over they rushed out and cut up a number of German prisoners. The Chinese spared few of the prisoners, using bombs, rifles, bayonets and all manner of instruments of death.

VETERANS OPPOSE HUTTERITE INFLUX

LETHBRIDGE, April 16.—Local G.W.V.A. are prepared to go to almost any length to prevent the invasion of Western Canada by further colonies of Mennonites and Hutterites. On Tuesday afternoon a deputation of the local branch of the Veterans' Association waited on the Pilling Land Company here, who have disposed of the land in the most of the colonies established last year in the Southern Alberta district, and demanded that officials of the company give their undertaking to have no further dealings with the Hutterites. Sharply worded resolutions have also been sent to Ottawa demanding the removal of the established colonies on the ground that they are undesirable citizens.

Six colonies of Hutterites located in this district last year, buying up some 30,000 acres for considerably more than a million and a half dollars.

DATE OF ARMISTICE REGULATES REFUNDS

OTTAWA, April 16.—That no refund can be made by the government of passage money or fares paid by soldiers' dependents who returned to Canada prior to the signing of the armistice, was yesterday decided by Cabinet after reconsidering the question.

The regulations made cover those dependents who left Great Britain after the armistice was signed on November 11, 1918, and upon review it has been decided that the scope of such regulations can not be widened to include those who returned prior to that date.

It has been further decided that no refund can be made in connection with the return passage to Canada in respect to those who left Canada after the armistice was signed.

Dandruff Surely Destroys the Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

MURDERER MAKES ESCAPE AT TORONTO

TORONTO, April 16.—Frank McCullough, of Youngstown, N.Y., awaiting hanging on May 3 for the murder of Frank Williams, acting detective, escaped from the condemned cell at Toronto jail during the night while his death watch slept, and from the start he had he is not likely to be captured. Sawing at the bars of the window and plugging the marks with chewing gum while the death watch was being changed, he gradually prepared for his escape. He then knotted his bedding together, and while the watch slept gained the ground and made off.

Only last Sunday McCullough was admitted to membership of the Western Congregational Church, elders and pastors attending the ceremony in his cell.

The Provincial Government today offered a reward of $1,000 for the capture of McCullough.

GERMANS TALKING ABOUT HARSH TERMS

BERLIN, April 16.—Semi-official French announcement of the conditions to be laid down in the treaty of peace are denounced by the German press. Prince Lichnowsky, in an article in the Tageblatt, declares France "forgets that, instead of leading to disarmament, an unjustly extorted peace will bring forth only fresh armaments, throwing into the shade all former armaments, because the mailed fist peace can be maintained only by the mailed fist."

Declaring that a peace of violence must be absolutely rejected, he concludes:

"Nobody can recommence the war against us. Neither can we be starved out, without the common enemy, communism and terrorism, throwing all mankind back into its primitive state."

"No German government can sign such terms," the Vorwaerts declares. "The entente statesmen must themselves settle with the inhabitants of the Saar Valley, who are thoroughly German, and they may find that sums proposed as indemnity cannot be extracted, even if the last sheet is taken from our beds."

Sawmill Burned

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 15.—Fire yesterday afternoon completely destroyed the Beaver River Lumber Co.'s sawmill situated between Jackman and the county line road in Langley Municipality, with the exception of the planing mill. How the fire started is not definitely known. The sawmill and shingle mill were both burned to the ground, as was also the lumber that was piled in the yards, as well as the shingles stored in the dry kiln sheds. It is estimated the loss will be in the neighborhood of $75,000.

Marconi Wireless Contracts

OTTAWA, April 16.—All contracts between the Marconi Wireless Company and the Naval Service Department are set forth in a return tabled in the House of Commons yesterday at the request of Mr. Tobin. The highest amount paid for any one station is $4,500 for the Belle Isle station, and the lowest is $1,200 paid for the station in Magdalen Island.

DEALS WITH CASE OF P. O. WORKERS

Department at Ottawa Issues Statement in Regard to Negotiations — Settlement of Various Points.

OTTAWA, April 16.—The Post Office Department this evening issued a lengthy statement dealing with the long-drawn-out discussion between the Dominion Government and the postal workers. The statement, after referring in detail to the communications which passed between the representatives of the postal workers and the Government when the requests of the workers first became the subject of negotiations early in March, takes up the story of the conference at the capital subsequent to April 1. The statement points out that in response to a communication from the Amalgamated Postal Workers, it was decided to retain the temporary employees in the service throughout the Summer. On March 25 a list of thirty-three demands was received as endorsed by the convention of the Amalgamated Postal Workers at Saskatoon and calling for an answer from the Government by the beginning of April. There was not any intimation from the postal employees of any intention to strike.

Two days later another list of fifteen demands was received, and the outcome was that a delegation was invited to come to Ottawa to discuss the situation with the Government. The statement goes on to tell of further correspondence and of the meeting in the capital, when the demands of the Western men were reduced to ten, which have since been dealt with. The demands covered equalization of salaries, inadequate salaries and the cost of living, etc.

In the eastern demands there was a difference in the matter of equalization. There was also a request for a Saturday half-holiday the year round, with the exception of rush seasons, and pay for overtime.

Increases for temporary employees who have been on minimum pay for some time were asked, and the Government replied that with certain exceptions, as in the case of returned soldiers, it would not be possible to give annual increases to these temporary men.

The postmen also requested that an extra staff be provided to carry on the work of any man or men absent from work. This matter was left over for further investigation.

The thirteenth demand, that all bonuses and allowances now paid as addition to salaries be included in the salary will be dealt with by the civil service commission. A matter which also would be taken up in reclassification was that the minimum wage of $24 per week be given all postal employees with corresponding increases to the higher grades.

The matter of equalization of salaries, it was pointed out, will also be met in the reclassification, under which the salary will be based on the class of work done irrespective of the location in Canada.

The conferences between the Government and the postal workers occupied several days.

The conference decided unanimously that the terms offered by the Government should be accepted.

France Wants Reimbursement

PARIS, April 16. — The budget committee of the Chamber of Deputies has unanimously adopted a resolution demanding that complete reimbursement for all damages due to the war be exacted of enemy countries, with priority for reparation claims. Asthma Cured To Stay Cured

Thousands testify to the lasting benefit secured from Catarrhozone

CURES WITHOUT DRUGS

One of the finest discoveries in medicine was given to the public when "Catarrhozone" was placed on the market about fifteen years ago. Since then thousands have been cured of asthma and catarrh. An interesting case is reported from Calgary in a letter from Creighton E. Thompson, who says:

"Nothing too strong can be said for Catarrhozone. I suffered four years from asthma in a way that would beggar description. I went through everything that man could suffer. I was told of Catarrhozone by a clerk in Findlay's drug store and purchased a dollar package. It was worth hundreds to me in a week, and I place a priceless value on the benefit I have since derived. I strongly urge every sufferer to use Catarrhozone for Asthma, Bronchitis and Catarrh."

The one-dollar package lasts two months; small size, 50c; sample size, 25c; all storekeepers and druggists, or the Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

Have You Ever Roasted Beef?

There's as much difference between roasted beef and baked beef as there is between night and day, as there is between our beef and that that you generally get elsewhere. Beef roasted on the spit in front of the good old fire is the real way—but now-a-days it is not always convenient to do it that way, but you can get the joint cut in the proper way by purchasing at the New England Market and that is quite as important—QUALITY is our business getter.

CONFERENCE WORK IS NEARING END

Fixing of Date for Meeting of Germany's Delegates Is Indication—Work of Empire Representatives.

PARIS, April 16.—(Cable from Leon Trepanier).—M. Clemenceau's announcement as to conclusions which have been reached with respect to the territorial, and other claims of France indicated a long step in the direction of that agreement between the Allied nations which is necessary before the terms of peace can be presented to the German delegates.

The announcement by President Wilson gives a definite date at which the Allied representatives will be ready to meet the German delegates.

It is understood that the representatives of the British Empire had no small part in arguing that a definite date should be fixed so that not only the various commissions now at work, but also the chief representatives of the five great powers, should find it imperative to conclude their deliberations within the next ten days.

The British Prime Minister returns to Paris on Thursday, and will devote himself absolutely to the work of the conference until it is concluded.

The Canadian ministers have practically completed their work in committee, but they are in almost daily attendance at meetings of the British Empire delegations, which are held for the purpose of reviewing the work of the various Allied commissions so far as it touches the interests of the British Empire. Yesterday afternoon Sir Robert Borden took the place of Mr. Balfour as chief British representative in the council of foreign ministers by whom a series of important recommendations respecting the terms of the peace treaty were considered. He was accompanied by Lord Hardinge, the permanent head of the Foreign Office.

Today Sir Robert Borden will preside at a meeting of the British Empire delegations to consider the report of the inter-Allied commission which has had under consideration for several weeks highly important and difficult questions respecting the economic conditions, and respecting provisions of the treaty of peace with regard thereto.

CANADA HAS LARGE COAST PATROL FLEET

OTTAWA, April 16.—The large increase in Canada's coastal patrol fleet during the war period was indicated in a return tabled in Parliament today at the request of F. W. Tobin, Richmond-Wolfe, who is informed that while the fleet consisted of 11 vessels at the close of 1914, the number had grown to 123 at the end of 1918. It is alleged that these figures include only the vessels flying the white ensign of the navy. The return also contains the information that Canadian authorities were in command of all the naval vessels of the navy with the exception of the Niobe, Rainbow, Shearwater and two submarines, the movements of which, after they were placed at the disposal of the Admiralty, were subject to the supreme control of the Admiralty.

INDIAN RIOTERS KILL EUROPEANS

Disturbance at Armritsar Is Marked by Murder and Havoc—Troops Restore Order—Passive Resistance.

LAHORE, India, April 16.—(Reuter's).—Further details of the rioting at Armritsar state that five Europeans were murdered. After looting the banks the rioters poured oil over everything and fired the buildings, the bodies of the victims in the National Bank being burned beyond recognition.

Manager Thompson, of the Alliance Bank, killed several of the rioters with his revolver before being overpowered. Everything of value in the town hall, including the official papers and records, was destroyed. The mission church and the Punjab religious depot were also burned. Several Europeans had thrilling escapes, a number of them being sheltered and housed by Indians until calm prevailed. A woman doctor in the municipal hospital escaped by hiding in a closet and dressing in native costume.

The police behaved splendidly, saving a number of Europeans. Local troops, with reinforcements from Lahore and Jullindur, finally quelled the disturbance.

LONDON, April 16.—Prompt measures taken by the Indian authorities to deal with the disturbances that occurred at Bombay and other points recently have resulted in the restoration of order everywhere, says a news dispatch from Bombay dated Sunday. The cotton and other markets in Bombay have been reopened. In the disorders at Ahmedabad, the Government buildings were burned, and a train conveying troops from Bombay to restore order was derailed by the removal of several rails. There were no casualties, but the line was blocked and telegraph communication interrupted.

BOMBAY, India, April 16.—(Reuter's).—Objectors to the Rowlatt Act, which prohibits the publication and distribution of seditious and disturbing literature, have started a campaign of passive resistance, beginning with resistance to the act respecting the press. The committee's statement says that for the time being, the laws regarding prohibited literature and registration of newspapers may be disobeyed. The committee selected certain proscribed books and pamphlets, mostly written by Ghandi, which "do not directly approve or encourage violence." These may be published, publicly sold and distributed.

SEEK ENFORCEMENT OF OPIUM TREATY

LONDON, April 16.—Cecil B. Harmsworth, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, told a questioner in the House of Commons today that the British Government had submitted a proposal to the peace conference that the countries represented there should take steps to bring the opium treaty of 1912 into force and that provision should be inserted in the peace terms imposing on the enemy states the obligation of ratifying the convention.

The British Government had also suggested that the League of Nations should be entrusted with the duty of supervising and carrying out the terms of the convention and also the traffic in opium and other noxious drugs.

CANADIAN CAVALRY IS NOW IN ENGLAND

The brigade includes the Fort Garry Horse Winnipeg; the Lord Strathcona Horse, Calgary; the Royal Canadian Dragoons of Toronto, No. 7 Canadian Cavalry Field Ambulance, Canadian Cavalry Brigade Machine Gun Section. Indian Kills His Employer

WINNIPEG, April 16.—Freely admitting his guilt, John William Cochrane, an Indian, 17 years old, confessed to the murder of J. B. Campbell, a wealthy farmer, and his employer, on Sunday evening, before a coroner's jury at an inquest held at Teulon. After hearing all the evidence, and after secret consideration for but a few minutes, the jury returned the verdict of wilful murder against the youth. The accused was formally arrested and charged with murder. He was brought to Winnipeg this afternoon.

THE MILK SUPPLY

Magistrate Jay was well within the mark in saying in court yesterday that the conditions under which the city's milk supply is obtained are very bad. There is no question whatever that a more rigid system of inspection is required and heavier penalties should be imposed where there are infractions of the pure milk regulations. A considerable proportion of the milk sold in the city does not contain the amount of butter fat it should. It is the duty of the city authorities to ascertain if adulteration is practised. It is generally recognized that the mode for sophisticating milk for sale consists in the addition of water and the subtraction of cream. There are of course from time to time certain refinements in these simple frauds, such as the addition of sugar, flour or starch or a touch of coloring matter. But the subtraction of cream is a very easy matter, for the separators can be set to take away one or two per cent, or indeed whatever fraction is required, and that this is done in many cases there is hardly a doubt.

This question of sophistication is one which it is the duty of the civic authorities to guard against, and they have the power to do so or we are greatly mistaken. But the sale of pure milk just as it is received from the cow will not necessarily overcome the conditions of which Magistrate Jay complains, for there must as well be rigid dairy inspection, and some kind of supervision kept over all dealers in the commodity. The city, no doubt, will say it has not the machinery to carry out this inspection and that it would prove too costly, but that is an argument that must be overcome, for an impure milk supply is a danger to the health of the community, and especially to the young. It is useless to ask consumers to make their own milk tests. Whatever is done to improve on existing methods should be carried out in co-operation with nearby municipalities from where the milk supply comes, and as well the city should supply its own machinery for making tests and enforcing cleanliness.

Magistrate Jay's warning should be taken to heart. The Dominion Government is creating a Department of Health and doubtless one of its first duties will be to educate the people of the country regarding the desirability of a pure and wholesome milk supply. Thus it may be possible for municipalities to secure co-operation from both the Dominion and Provincial Governments, and so, whatever expense is involved, may be shared. This question is one of very vital importance and we trust it will engage the attention of the City Council without any loss of time.

ALLIES AND RUSSIA

Mr. Lloyd George achieved yet another of his triumphs in the House of Commons yesterday, inasmuch as he was able to tell Britain that all the election promises he had made would be incorporated in the Peace Treaty to be presented to Germany for signature towards the end of the present month. The debate, which promised to be an acrimonious one, petered out after his speech, and while what he said left uncertainty in some minds as to the future, there is no denying that his utterances were in the straight flung language for which he has become renowned. One of his pronouncements that will be welcomed everywhere in the Allied countries was that wherein he spoke of France's hopes as a result of the peace treaty. It is possible to gather from what he said that these hopes will be fulfilled, and that ample guarantees for her security in the future will be forthcoming.

The main question, as far as the future is concerned, is the attitude of the Allies towards the Eastern problem. Bolshevism is not to be fought, but it is not to be recognized, while the Allies are to give aid to those countries menaced by Bolshevism but which are seeking to establish their independence. They can do no less than this if they are to adhere to the peace principles laid down by President Wilson. Mr. Lloyd George disabused the public mind of the impression that had been gaining ground that President Wilson was leaning towards recognition of the Lenine regime. Evidently this is not the case, for America's chief peace delegate has not displayed any such attitude at the Conference. It must be assumed Britain's Premier spoke for all the Associated Powers in saying there could be no recognition of the Bolsheviki. It seems, too, a decision is about to be reached whereby Russia is to be fed by the Allies, under neutral supervision, but a prerequisite to this will be that the Lenine Government puts an end to the wars it has been conducting and promises not to attempt to interfere with any of the boundary decisions reached by the Peace Conference. The probability, or otherwise, of the Bolshevist regime agreeing to this depends upon the straits it has reached in the task of government.

It is an extraordinary commentary on Bolshevism in practice that one of the greatest food producing countries in the world, a country which is an empire of illimitable agricultural riches and thickly populated, should have to look to the outside for foodstuffs. If any evidence were needed of the utter failure of Bolshevism it is found in the food situation of Russia today. Lenine and Trotzky have brought the country to industrial ruin and they are now forced to ask the Allies to come to the aid of their starving populace, who they have deluded with communist ideas which proved unworkable among a people whose habits of industry had been temporarily destroyed. If Russia accepts the conditions laid down by the Allied Powers it is quite conceivable the peace of Europe may be in prospect, provided Germany accepts the peace terms, but there is as yet no assurance she will. Then, too, there is the possibility Bolshevist promises will not be observed, for one of the doctrines of the creed is repudiation, and the Allies, before they undertake to have food supplies sent into Russia, will have to obtain hard and fast guarantees that all their conditions will be observed.

Mr. Lloyd George is technically right in saying that the peace terms to be imposed on Germany cannot be made public until they are received by that country. It is not so much the actual nature of those terms about which there has been so much uneasiness, but rather about the strength the Allies are prepared to employ to see they are enforced. The public of the Allied countries have discounted the importance of the discussions at Paris because they were, in the first place, unaware of the details of what was being discussed, but more particularly because they learned of growing chaos in Europe at a time when peace conditions were being prepared. If the proposal to feed Russia leads to a cessation of strife it will have the effect of creating world-wide confidence. But, as well, the Allies must insist in the strongest terms that all Bolshevist propaganda ends throughout the Allied world. Bolshevist gold, which should have been buying foodstuffs for the starving people of Russia, has been scattered liberally in the effort to foment revolution in every country. Bolshevist agents are everywhere, even in our midst in this farthest West of Canada. They are acting at the dictation of the Lenine regime and incidentally forwarding the pro-German propaganda. Before there can be peace this propaganda must cease.

East Indians' Wives

Sir,—In an article on Page 9 of The Victoria Times of April 14, 1919, headed "Attorney-General on New Invasion of East Indians." He says: "I have been witholding comment on the matter." "But I have been waiting and waiting in vain for protests in the House of Commons or elsewhere." "I have been surprised that there has been no comment publicly in other directions." "I feel that this is a matter of vital importance to Canada," etc. "Sombody must speak out." "It seems to me this province shall not be allowed to be the cradle of Orientals, etc., etc." This from the Minister of Labor and Attorney-General of British Columbia, who evidently feels lonesome for the Ottawa statesman are derelict in their duty; also the public who voice no protest, therefore the Mountain labored and brought forth a mouse. The real truth appeals to every true heart, and the heart of Canada is shocked to think that India furnished over one million soldiers who fought and died with the sons of Canada, shoulder to shoulder, and shared the thirsts of Mesopotamia together, and that is the reason of the silence the Attorney-General refers to. Canada pictures 3,000 men (Sikhs) loyal to the British Empire, men of the Aryan race from whom the leading peoples of Europe are largely descended, living as they are compelled to do here, no wife, no child, no home. They see Chinese and others come here—hundreds of brides arrive from the Orient, but not from British India, and British fair play is quoted and there is a feeling of shame, and the "silence" the Attorney-General refers to is the result of repentance taking root, and "As ye have done it unto one of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

It is God's eternal justice to allow these men their wives and children for their race has paid for it with their blood and treasure—a billion pounds sterling. The law can regulate at Ottawa the number of newcomers, but those that were allowed to come here should have their chance for love and home—and it appears as if they are about to have it. That they should have their chance is the opinion of all right minded, kindly hearted people, Christian or not.

I admit this is hard on the Attorney-General, who seems bursting with anxiety and filled with the wind of the future, but as he seems lonesome and feels it, it will not be amiss to remind your readers that these are dubious days for political pot boilers. At night they have nightmares of the soldier throwing the House into the Bay. Labor worries come to the politician, also soldier worries, to whom he hands a land lemon, but feeling the importance of securing the labor vote, should the soldier vote be lost to him, he tries to use the Hindu to influence the labor vote, thereby appealing to the lowest passions of mankind, forgetting the fact that there is more kindness and real Christian charity among workers than among politicians by ten to one. New bait is often good in fishing and Hindu wives and children are tried to influence labor, and tried by men who steered clear of the war, who if they were decent men would now let the returned soldiers take their positions. Plenty of returned soldier lawyers are competent to fill this Attorney-General's chair.

"Japan Ready"

Sir,—The above topic suggested itself to me on reading the account of Dr. T. Iyenaga's address before the Canadian Club. My purpose is not to refer to the important speech, as it speaks for itself, my thought being more to emphasize, the fact that "Japan" is ready! Someone may ask ready for what? to which I would reply, ready for anything in the way of progress or efficiency. How do I know? Well, I have seen the Japanese at work with their tremendous energy and enterprise in the seaports of Yokohama, Kobe and Mogi, and am prepared to say that Japan is on the alert to hold her own in the advanced ranks of commerce and of the civilized nations of the world today.

The first time that fact dawned upon my Western mind was one fine morning when I woke up and looked out wonderingly at the busy waterfront of Yokohama, with big Japanese steamships swinging at anchor out in the stream or tied up alongside the splendid docks and freight sheds or warehouses of that charming city of the Orient. Japan ready! I should say to handle any big ships Canada sends her way and to unload and load them in record time, too, with her expert stevedores.

It was the sight of a lifetime to see these Japanese handle freight and to hear the steam winches rattling continuously almost, the men laughing and singing as they worked so heartily and cheerfully. "Kobe" was the most record-breaking seaport ever I witnessed for "quick service," smart work; or, to use that hackneyed word "efficiency" in loading and unloading vessels.

Now, for the moral of my story—my boys! Are we "ready" and willing like Japan to keep the wheels of industry, commerce, progress and prosperity going on happily and contentedly, or are we listening to dangerous destructive ideas of agitators and moral and social "wreckers." With all the boasted "better conditions" of this country there have appeared signs of deterioration or a disinclination for work, known now by the up to date name of "industrial fatigue."

It is a great point to see that a man's real life is not a mere materialistic conception built upon covetousness and greed and graft and gain, as seems to be the moving idea among many men today who are all the while never content, but demanding more! more! more! And to enforce these unreasonable, unrighteous ideas, "The One Big Union Idea" is being preached and propagated now, inciting to class hatred and lawlessness and anarchy against constitutional authority, the laws of government and of God. I would earnestly warn every sensible worker of this city to beware of the forces of evil that would seek to drag you into the net of lawlessness and anarchy and social ruin. By the fate of Russia I would solemnly warn my fellow men against the modern menace—I.W.W.ism or the Big Union., Trade-unionists I warn you. Beware of Bolshevism, in it's subtle beginnings.

Car Stealing

Sir,—I often have complaints from my customers of willfull damage to their cars. Only this week I had two complaints. The first was an absolute brand new Overland, left outside the Dominion. Some young men got inside to smoke and rested their feet on the new wood considerably damaging the car and burning a hole in the seat. The other case was a car just out of the paintshop where some idiot struck matches on the side panel.

I here suggest that cases of these sorts, especially car stealing, be tried before a higher court than the Police Court where such trivial fines are imposed. The cat is the one and only remedy. I propose that a fund be started with $1 membership so that a suitable reward, say of $500, be given for the arrest of the culprit and sufficient with cash in hand to employ some eminent counsellor to prosecute. Could you open your columns to discuss this subject.

The Question of Titles

Sir—Referring to your leading editorial of the 15th inst., "The Question of Titles;" as the subect is now being discussed in the Federal House and is exciting much interest throughout the country, I feel that the following remarks are pertinent.

From my own experience in three provinces of the Dominion, and from interchange of views with all sorts and conditions of intelligent men in France and England, hailing from various parts of Canada, I am led to believe that Canadian sentiment is averse to the principle of granting of titles, as well as the after results brought into being, by the granting of titles for any purpose whatever, save purely military decorations for recognized service under fire or devotion to duty behind the lines.

The granting of titles is contrary to the atmosphere and conditions prevailing in a young and vigorous country such as Canada. There are sufficient traits in the composition of human character for causing artificial divisions of classes and interests, without adding another, which comes to us with all the earmarks of a decayed civilization.

What greater honor can be given a man for efficient public service than the appellation "Honorable"? And as for recognition in the world of arts, science, business and other fields of human endeavor, what greater recognition is there than that given by such an institution as the French Academy?

The doctrine of "Noblesse Oblige" in its original meaning is as foreign to our Canadian institutions as the "L'Etat c'est Moi" of "Le Grand Monarque" and we all hope that the last of the benevolent despots and upholders of the latter doctrine has gone down into oblivion as a striking example to future generations, in the person of Kaiser Wilhelm of the recent German Empire.

The true meaning of "Noblesse Oblige" as adapted to ou rday and conditions is public service, e.g. the greater the gifts the individual has been endowed with the greater his duties to the state and to his fellow man. And this meaning should not be confused with that lofty condescension towards inferiors, real or assumed, which was a characteristic of the old regime.

The statement that titles as such make for a higher standard of intellectual life requires much proof. Prima facie, anything that confers honor, wealth, position and ease should tend to a higher standard of intellectual life. But does it do so in actuality? The writer would say no. But why should a title do so, any more than the appellation "Honorable" or recognition by such a body as the French Academy?

As in Shakespeare's day:

Who shall go about
To cozen fortune and be honorable
Without the stamp of merit? Let none presume
To wear an undeserved dignity.
O, that estates, degrees and offices
Were not derived corruptly; and that clear honor
Were purchased by the merit of the wearer!
How many then should cover that stand bare?
How many commanded that command?
How much low peasantry would then be gleaned
From the true seed of honor; and how much honor
Picked from the chaff and ruin of the times
To be new—varnished?"

The spirit of the day is the state for the citizen and the abolition of all the trappings and insignia of rank, blaze of heraldry and pomp of powers, remnants of an ancient system, unsuitable to Canadian institutions and the atmosphere of Canadian life.

Stevedore's Efficiency

Sir,—Please permit me to ask a few questions re Mr. Holman's letter on stevedore's efficiency in your issue of the 11th. In a previous letter he said it took 30 "common citizens" to do the work of 8 stevedores, and also mentioned the fact that hundreds of these commons citizens, so woefully inefficient, joined the ranks of the strikers. Does he intend us to believe that, say 100 of these inefficients after proceeding to the labor temple and parting with a five or ten spot and receiving a "button" and a bundle of I.W.W. literature and sped forth as union men and "brothers"—does he really intend us to believe that these 100 inefficients were suddenly endowed with the strength and efficiency of 350 common citizens? If so, it is marvellous; if not, somebody was being robbed, because once the button is worn, top pay is insisted on. Last Sunday the longshoremen in Seattle went on strike because the dock companies reserved to themselves the right to give jobs to the most efficient workers instead of the "labor temple" alphabetical order. Mr. Holman can put two and two together. Since the attempted revolution in Seattle the docks are practically "open shop."

Chinese as Cooks

Sir,—I was pleased to read an article in Sunday's Colonist of March 23 dealing with the stopping of Chinese coming to this country, which would mean more work for the men who are so fast returning here. But, under the present conditions, Chinese are employed in work of every kind, both outside and in. I think white men should be given more of the work Chinese are now doing, as there are many good cooks among the returned men, also a good number of smart young men who could do dining-room duties, etc., and have a much better and appetizing appearance than the Chinese; and some ladies are most particular about their drawing or sitting room, but few seldom go to the kitchen to see whether it is clean or under what conditions the food they eat may be prepared and cooked.

I think the kitchen and utensils, tables and larder, where the food is prepared and kept, should be as clean as any other part of the house, and there should be clean cloths for drying the plates, dishes, etc., and screens over the doors and windows in the Summer time. In any good household in England the kitchen is clean and the woman cook or chef also, and they do not mind anyone coming to the kitchen at times to see them preparing and cooking; but it is seldom so with the Chinese cook. For what reason would be hard to explain. I have heard of eggs being cooked in the tea kettle and tea made with the same water; but if a white cook did this she would be called a filthy person.

We came here nine years ago as settlers, and my husband has been a life-experienced gardener in every branch, both inside and out. He was told there would be plenty of good work in his line here. A short time after arriving here my husband went around to all the nurseries hoping to get a position, and was told by all of them who had glass work they had all the Chinese help they required, and the same was said to him when he called on some of the large householders. Although we were strangers here then, it ought not to have been any trouble to have obtained work considering the high testimonials my husband had.

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

(From the British Colonist of April 17, 1869.)

From Nanaimo—The steamer Sir James Douglas arrived from Nanaimo last evening bringing Messrs. Gerow, Stafford, Aitkin, Bednall, Drinkwater, Ping and several others as passengers, and a quantity of livestock.

The Deluge Engine was safely housed in the new location of the company last evening at 5½ o'clock. The company mustered in strong force under Mr. Charles Howard, acting foreman. Among the guests were Chief Engineer Kretmier, Assistant Engineer Vogel, Mr. Burnes, Foreman of the U.M.R.R. Company, and many other firemen. Success to the company, its officers and the fire department generally was drunk with enthusiasm. The new house is arranged with a view to the reception of the company's new steam fire engine.

Real Estate Sale—Mr. Franklin will offer today four well situated lots on Ontario and Ottawa Streets, James Bay—two of the number being corner lots; suburban section No. 47, adjacent to Col. Foster's residence, Esquimalt, containing over six acres of garden land; section 15, 2 W., South Saanich, fronting on the Inlet, and containing about 46 acres. The terms are liberal and the sale offers superior advantages to buyers.

Mrs. Sanford's Address

Sir,—In your account in the morning Colonist dealing with Mrs. Sanford's address at Government House it is exceedingly regrettable that so much which was vital was left out of the report.

Mrs. Sanford made it very clear that if women in the reconstructive period are to improve conditions in the world, they will do so only by taking all their problems to the only One who has power, and that He, God, will guide them at all times if they will allow Him to do so. She spoke of His certain answer to prayer and though the way would often seem dark, He will be with us at all times.

She said, too, we must trust Him absolutely and lean not on our own understanding, that we must lay aside our wills and allow His will to rule and in doing this we would see the right gradually increasing in humanity "until He come whose right it is."

She said much more in this strain, but this is what one at least carried away, a message which will linger no doubt with many who were present.

Her inspiring words were heard only by a limited number of Victoria women, but should be known by all. If we all lived up to the ideals we gave voice to, we would soon have a very beautiful world, for the Kingdom of Heaven would be manifest on all sides.

NO DECISION YET AS TO UTILITIES OFFICE

Cabinet Yesterday Considered Appointment, But No Definite Action Was Taken—Many Matters Before Council

No definite action has as yet been taken by the Provincial Government towards appointing the Public Utilities Commissioner, an office provided for by legislation passed at the recent session of the Legislature.

The Cabinet held a lengthy session yesterday afternoon, at which a large number of matters which have been awaiting consideration since the Legislature prorogued were discussed and further consideration of the appointment of the Public Utilities Commissioner was given. But, it was announced, no decision was reached. Another session of the Cabinet will probably be held today, the last until after the Easter holidays.

Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, left yesterday for the Interior and will be away for probably 10 days or two weeks. He has been busy of late with department officials preparing a programme of public works to be carried on this year with the money which was voted at the last session for road work as well as that which will be forthcoming under the $1,500,000 'emergency loan' which was authorized to provide public works and thereby employment for returned men. The plans for the season are pretty well prepared and after consideration by the Cabinet will be announced. As yet, the Minister stated, he is not in a position to make announcement of the Gov-road work, but the programme will be provincial in its scope, he says, and will, he is confident, meet the situation.

GRICE IS ACQUITTED OF STEALING MOTOR

In the County Court yesterday afternon, Albert Grice stood trial before His Honor Judge Lampman on the charge of stealing a motor car, the property of Mr. Angus Campbell. Mr. J. S. Brandon appeared for the Crown, and Mr. H. C. Hall for accused.

The charge arose as the result of the taking of the car from the Begg Motor Company's garage on the night of April 11, when the accused and four other youths went for a joy ride in Saanich, which ended in the car being overturned and badly damaged on the way home near Elk Lake.

According to the evidence of the manager of the Begg Motor Company, Grice was in charge of the premises at the time, but had no authority to take out the car.

The facts in the case were not disputed. Mr. Hall, for the defence, contended that there was no theft under the Act. Section 285B of the Criminal Code deals specifically with an offence of this nature. There was no evidence of intention to steal the car, and there was evidence to show the intention to bring the car back after the ride. After reading the section of the code cited by Mr. Hall, His Honor Judge Lampman found the accused not guilty.

SHIPYARDERS TO GIVE ATTRACTIVE CONCERT

Dramatic Club of Foundation Organizations to Present Ambitious Programme at Club House This Evening.

A programme of considerable interest is being offered at the Foundation Club House tonight, when the Concert and Dramatic Club of the shipyard employees' organization will give the first ambitious effort since it was formed about two months ago. The concert will be of a popular nature throughout, but brings together some of the best entertainment talent in the employ of the Foundation Company. It will commence at 8 o'clock and will extend over a period of possibly three hours, covering meanwhile a great variety of entertainment features. It is planned particularly to bring the employees out for a pleasant evening, and to offer a programme that will be attractive to the members of their families and friends.

The offerings will include vocal solos, entertainment features and comic songs by experienced artists, as well as instrumental numbers for the piano, violin, trombone and stringed orchestra, and one of the outstanding features will be the renditions of a Foundation male quartette of excellently trained voices which has not before been heard in public as an organization.

The committee having the programme of the concert in hand is composed of Messrs. Morley and Kettle, of the Point Hope Yard, and Messrs. Menclaws and Irish, of the Point Ellice Yard. Every detail has been considered that will contribute to a first-class entertainment.

YOUTH AND DEMOCRACY

Miss Winn Speaks at Unitarian Church, Urging Progress Along Lines of the Esthetic

On Sunday evening, at the Unitarian Church, Miss Winn gave an inspiring talk on youth and democracy. Her watchword was a prayer from the writings of Buddha: "Let all things that breathe, overcoming sorrow and attaining cheerfulness, move forward freely, each in his own path."

Her method of progress would be along the lines of democracy, and these she elaborated with succinctness and vigor. Democracy, she said, means equal opportunity for all and social returns from all. This involves the setting up of a common purpose in which all can share. To this end it is necessary that there shall be free communication of ideas between individuals and groups, and also that all institutions shall be founded on ethical principles. More than this, it implies the provision of institutions for the nurture of esthetic ideals.

For the perfecting of democracy it will be necessary to break down by means of education all superficial class distinctions. The mere transfer of power from one group to another can effect nothing except to give us the illusion of reform instead of the reality.

In the light of these ideals all institutions—political, social, industrial and commercial—must be criticised by their human effect and each must contribute to the social and political fitness of all.

For the attainment of such a democracy as is here outlined it is essential that its principles shall be instilled into our youth from the very beginning. Miss Winn has but small regard for the authoritative method in education. She insists that from its earliest days the child shall be schooled to use its freedom; in fact, the only true education is that which provides a child with opportunities of choice and so awakens into full life its instinctive activities and endowments.

In the discussion which followed Miss Winn answered a number of questions, and the audience showed again its perennial interest in all things pertaining to the education of its future citizens.

CO-OPERATIVE PLAN MAKING PROGRESS

Further Meeting Is Held This Week to Perfect Scheme in Which Ex-Service Men's Organizations Are Interested.

The service associations of the city are making progress with their scheme for the formation of a co-operative stores company, which is to be incorporated under the B.C. Co-operative Companies' Act with a capital of something in the neighborhood of $100,000, it is intended.

The committee, composed of Comrades J. Food, Best, Miller and Winsby, is busy perfecting the details of the scheme to present to the next meeting to be called for a discussion of the matter. At this meeting, it is anticipated, final steps will be taken in the forming of the company, the object of which is to bring the consumer and producer together with a view to cutting down the cost of commodities such as meat, fish, groceries, etc. Arrangements are being made to handle the fish of a returned soldiers' cannery that is being built and will shortly be in operation at Point Beale, near Bamfield, and Mr. Morley has given his permission for the handling of fish locally.

Comrade Food is going to Vancouver as soon as the project for the formation of the co-operative company is completed here and will address the G.W.V.A. there with a view to getting the Vancouver returned men to start action along the same lines.

Locally the organizations taking the leading interest in the scheme are the G.W.V.A., the Army and Navy Veterans, the Comrades of the Great War, the British Campaigners and the Provincial and Civil Service Associations.

UNLICENSED MILK VENDORS ARE FINED

Police Magistrate Delivers Caustic Comments on Case of Hindu Dairyman

Complaints about the quality of milk sold to consumers in Victoria are common, a condition which there appears to be no civic or other machinery to remedy. A case heard in the Police Court yesterday indicates that at least a section of the public is being supplied with milk produced in filthy premises also. The facts of the case were brought out as a result of the prosecution of Jowalla Singh, charged with selling milk in the city without the formality of procuring a licence. Jowall was fined $50, and a similar penalty was imposed upon F. G. Hull on a like charge. Hull admitted purchasing milk from Jowalla and distributing it amongst his customers.

The evidence given in court showed that Jowalla Singh had his licence cancelled by the Saanich authorities, but transferred his dairy within the limits of the city and continued business without a licence. The cancellation was in consequence of filthy premises and employment of a diseased milker. Assistant Sanitary Inspector McKenzie took charge of Jowalla and had him arraigned in court.

Announcing the decision of the court Police Magistrate Jay delivered the following comment on the case: "The conditions under which the city's milk supply is obtained are very bad. No doubt a lot of the recent sickness has been due to the condition of the milk. The people do not know the source of the supply, and I think that greater publicity should be given to the conditions which exist. The child life is dependent upon a supply of pure milk. I do not think that the law provides a sufficient penalty for any persons who are found guilty of breaking the laws."

City and District in Brief

Girls' Corner Club—Mrs. Marchant will address the Girls' Club this evening at Oddfellows' Hall, Douglas Street. Tea will be served at 6:15. Every girl, especially those living away from home, will be welcomed.

Fined for Having Opium—In the Police Court yesterday a Chinese named Tin was fined $10 for having opium in his possession. The accused tried to swallow the contents of the package containing the opium, but found it rather too much for him and had to get rid of it.

Judgment for Plaintiff.—In the County Court yesterday His Honor Judge Lampman gave judgment for the plaintiff for possession and accounting of moneys received since a certain date in the case of McGaw versus Evans, which was a dispute concerning tenancy of the Manitoba Hotel. On a counter-claim for malicious arrest and prosecution His Honor reserved judgment. Mr. Geo. Morphy appeared for Evans and Mr. J. A. Aikman for McGaw.

St. Faith's School—A very pleasing entertainment, to which parents and friends were invited, was given on Friday afternoon last by the pupils on the occasion of the closing of the school for the Easter holidays. The programme included dancing, singing and reciting and the performance of the young people was very much enjoyed by all, great credit being due to Miss Southwell. Very Rev. Dean Quainton gave a short, interesting address. Tea was served and the proceedings were brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem.

Need Many Sweaters.—The supply of sleeveless sweaters is getting low at Red Cross headquarters and the demand for them among the invalid returning soldiers is increasing. The Red Cross does not wish to be short of this very necessary comfort for sick and wounded soldiers, and therefore appeals to knitters in Victoria to come to the Temple building and get a supply of wool to knit these sweaters, so that a reserve supply of several hundred may be built up at once. An earnest request is made to workers to help in this task and to pass the word of the present need to their friends.

Bear Skin Drawing Today. — The only opportunity to secure one of the Polar bear skins being raffled by the Red Cross Society will be by purchase of tickets before 3:30 p.m. today, as this raffle will be drawn at the Temple Building headquarters at that hour. One of these skins has been on view in the window of the Hinton Building and has attracted a great deal of attention, the other one can be seen at Wilkerson's. Both skins were presented to the society by the Steffansson Arctic Expedition. Tickets at 25 cents can be obtained at Wilkerson's, Morris', C.P.R. Ticket Office and the Temple Building.

Xpres Tag Day Tuesday—Next Tuesday, April 22, the Women's Canadian Club will commemorate the anniversary of Ypres by a street collection to be made in behalf of the club's fund for returned soldiers. This fund, raised by the club and administered by the Returned Soldiers' Committee of the organization, has rendered splendid service since its inception among returned soldiers, assisting many of them to regain their footing in civil life and frequently making loans to establish them in business. The fund proved especially beneficial during the recent epidemic of influenza, when ten cases received substantial assistance. It is to augment the fund to carry on this work that the proceeds of Tuesday's tag day will be devoted and the club anticipates a generous response to its appeal.

Underwriters' Association—A well attended meeting of the Victoria and Island Life Underwriters' Association was held at the Dominion Hotel on Monday, the 14th inst. At the gathering after the lunch a general discussion was held on the subject of ethics in life insurance, and many interesting remarks were made by various members, the speakers pointing out that it was the first duty of every life insurance man to give the insuring public honest and efficient service. Mr. F. Lewin, secretary of the association, was able to report a very large increase in membership in consequence of the Dominion-wide drive which had recently been made to increase the membership throughout Canada, the local branch being in a particularly happy and flourishing state. A committee to meet Mr. P. A. Wintemute, president of the Life Underwriters' Association of Canada, was appointed by the chairman, Mr. F. N. Kliner.

DOUKHOBOR LANDS

Dominion Inclined to Acquire B. C. Holdings If Prices Are Right, Minister Informs Premier

That the Federal Government is inclined to purchase the lands now held by Doukhobors in the Brilliant section if they can be secured at reasonable prices was the intimation conveyed to Premier Oliver in a wire from Hon. J. D. MacLean, Minister of Education, who is now at Ottawa interviewing the Federal authorities in regard to a grant of $250,000 to the University of British Columbia and contingent upon which the province will also arrange for raising $500,000 to provide for the erection of buildings and extending the work of the University.

The message was in response to one sent to the Minister by the Premier, to whom of late representations have been made by returned soldier organizations and others that acquisition of the Doukhobor lands would be a good move in providing soldiers with lands suitable for immediate settlement.

If the lands were acquired by the province it would be for the purpose of turning them over to the Federal Soldiers' Land Settlement Board, through which all lands secured by the Dominion for soldier settlement are acquired.

STARTS INQUIRY

Referee in Dolly Varden Mines Dispute Will Initiate Investigation on 22nd Instant

Mr. Justice Clements, who was recently named by the Provincial Government to act as referee in the settlement of the claim of the Taylor Engineering Company of Vancouver against the Dolly Varden Mines Company at Alice Arm, will commence his sittings on April 22 at Vancouver.

The claim is one for payment for the construction of a railway connecting tidewater with the mines about 13 miles inland from Alice Arm. The differences between the engineering company and the mines company were aired before the Select Mining Committee of the Legislature at the recent session, the committee's recommendations as to the terms of settlement being incorporated in a special act which was passed. That act called for payment being made of an amount to be fixed by the referee, and Mr. Justice Clements was named to that office.

It is provided by the act that failure to pay the amount found by the referee within one month after that official gives his decision will result in the Taylor Engineering Company taking control of the mines under certain conditions and operating them for the benefit of the creditors of the engineering concern.

TEAMSTERS ASKING FOR HIGHER WAGES

VANCOUVER, April 16.—Delegates from teamsters employed by the city appeared before the public works committee of the City Council Tuesday afternoon asking an increase.

In a statement, the delegates made it clear that they were not threatening to strike but merely asking justice. They figured their actual team costs including labor, at $9.80 per day. Instead of asking the city to pay $12, as other concerns do, they asked a daily schedule of $10. Alderman Rogers upheld the demand, stating that a team could not be hired for less than $10 per day.

The city engineer is to report at the next meeting.

Easter Monday will be observed as a full holiday in Victoria's stores.

The retail section of the Board of Trade, at its meeting last night which was fully representative of various lines of retail trade, went on record as favoring Monday closing. By declaring themselves definitely on the matter, members of the retail section have set the lead and it is probable that every store will fall into line and act upon the meeting's decision.

The question was not settled without considerable discussion, and although the decision was finally made unanimous, there was strong opposition to the Monday closing proposal at first.

Messrs. J. D. O'Connell and G. D. Christie contended that there was no valid reason for closing up the city Easter Monday and that the return of a large number of soldiers during the week-end made it important for the local stores to remain open in order that the soldiers could be outfitted. It was argued that the practice of closing on Easter Monday was not followed in the East, although Victoria in past years, for reasons unknown, had cherished it as a tradition that must be upheld.

Those who favored Monday closing declared that Monday had been fixed as a bank holiday and was therefore a statutory holiday. The public were used to Easter Monday closing and, even if the stores remained open, trade would probably be poor. With the stores closed on Monday, it would be possible to remain open all day Wednesday and thus fully compensate for any loss that might have been sustained the first day of the week.

An amendment to the original motion to close all day Monday was to the effect that a half-holiday be declared, but this was defeated.

PLAN CAMPAIGN TO BREAK COMPETITION

Retail Merchants Discuss the Menace of Growing Trade of Chinese Stores—Suggest Prohibitive Measures.

Suggestions of strategy to be employed in a campaign to neutralize or abolish Chinese competition in Victoria's retail trade were placed before the retail section of the Board of Trade at its initial meeting last night. While the meeting reached no definite conclusions, the proposals put forward were referred to a committee for further investigation, and those found feasible will form the substance of recommendations to be submitted at a later time.

Mr. Joseph E. Wilson was elected chairman of the retail section. The meeting was opened by Mr. J. O. Cameron, the new president of the Board of Trade.

A fact brought out at the meeting was that there are now over one hundred stores operating in Victoria outside Chinatown. The general situation is summarized in a statement presented by Mr. F. Elworthy, secretary of the Board of Trade, as follows:

"At one time the Chinese furnished domestic help and they engaged in work upon the land. But now there is a great scarcity of laborers in these fields and concurrently we find the Chinese engaged in almost every line of business formerly carried on exclusively by the white population. The Orientals succeed in these new spheres largely on account of their ability to live cheaply, and thus sometimes undersell the white traders, who are generally married men with families having a standard of living entirely different from the Orientals. These conditions will not remain stationary. The menace must be abated forthwith or it will grow to intolerable dimensions. So long as Chinese are allowed to remain in British Columbia the Victoria retail merchants wish to see the old conditions restored; that is, the Chinese to be producers and not competitors in business, and that their present trading operations become a field for our returning soldiers. It is realized that the task is beset with difficulties."

To Start Propaganda

One certain outgrowth of last night's meeting will be the organization of a propaganda campaign to popularize exclusive trading with white merchants. Mr. E. J. Wall, a member of a committee which brought in a report on the subject of propaganda and other methods of meeting Oriental competition, declared that he was convinced that moral pressure was the only weapon available to combat "the menace," and if strong enough it would be effective.

The committee, after setting forth a number of suggestions as a preliminary measure to get influence to bear against Chinese competition, reported:

"We think that the public will be impressed with the necessity and advisability of trading with their own people instead of with aliens, and by this means enhance the prosperity of this city and at the same time better their own conditions. We have also called the attention of the Real Estate Exchange to the detrimental effects Oriental occupation will have on the property occupied and adjacent property. We think that if action along these lines is taken up and given a persistent trial it will bear results which, if not up to our expectations, will better the conditions of the trade as they exist at present."

Letters from Calgary and Vancouver were read relating to by-laws and proposed by-laws aimed at the elimination of street peddlers. It was shown that Vancouver had much the same situation to face as Victoria, and that labor unrest has been accentuated by presence in large numbers of Chinese merchants and laborers.

That the labor unions had shown inconsistency in their representations favoring the exclusion of Chinese from industry, was claimed by one speaker. He said that the labor leaders and the rank and file of labor were loud in their condemnation of Chinese competition, yet it was they who actually supported the Chinese by buying at their stores. The agitation against the Chinese appeared to be strongest with those who preferred to "let the other fellow do it."

That the system of licensing places of business and peddlers is at fault was the contention of several speakers, who claimed that there should be an avenue open for the discouragement of unfair competition without stumbling over the obstacle of class legislation. It was stated that in Vancouver the Chinese had retained a lawyer to watch their interests, and the Chinese in Victoria also appeared to be well fortified by clever propagandists anxious to espouse the cause of the Oriental.

That the white people themselves were at the bottom responsible for the growth of Chinese trade in Victoria by patronizing Orientals was admitted and it was also the general opinion that the root of the trouble was not very far from the immigration regulations; but it was argued that to meddle with international issues would get nowhere, and that the Board of Trade would be best advised to confine itself strictly to dealing with conditions effecting retail trade as they exist at present.

MR. VILLARD SAYS GERMANY WILL SIGN

NEW YORK, April 16.—German leaders may storm and threaten to refuse the peace treaty about to be offered to them, but when the time for signing comes they will affix their signature, Oswald Garrison Villard, editor of The Nation, predicted here, shortly after his return from a four months' visit to France and Germany.

Mr. Villard, who spent four weeks in Berlin and other cities of Germany, said that cabinet ministers, peace commissioners and others had told him that no treaty similar to the one proposed would be signed. He discounted their statements, asserting that when they faced the alternative of signing or "seeing ten or twenty millions of Germans starved," they would sign, just as they accepted the last extension of the armistice after threatening to refuse.

Mr. Villard asserted he regarded the reparation terms for Germany as extremely generous.

"Any one," he said, "who had seen the devastated regions of France as I have must wish that all of this could go to France alone. Then only the damage would be made good. The British and American experts had examined very carefully into that question, and evidently have decided that this was the maximum that Germany could be expected to pay."

PRO-GERMAN WORK OF MISSIONARIES

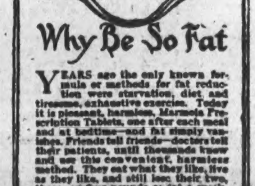

WASHINGTON, April 16. — Formal charges of pro-German activity by certain American missionaries in Bulgaria and Northern Persia have been forwarded to the American Board of Foreign Missions by the State Department, it was learned today from official sources.

These charges also involve the missionaries in political activities in Persia. The charges, together with the results of investigations conducted by the State Department, were sent to the American Board by Assistant Secretary of State Phillips.

PIONEER MANITOBAN LAID TO REST HERE

Many Winnipeg Friends of Mr. John P. Robertson Attended Funeral Services—Eulogized by Rev. Dr. Bryce.

The funeral of Mr. James P. Robertson, former Provincial Librarian of Manitoba and pioneer of Winnipeg, who died in Los Angeles last week, took place yesterday afternoon. The services were attended by a large number of friends and relatives, and floral tributes, many of them sent by Winnipeg people, were massed high upon the casket.

Rev. Dr. W. L. Clay, assisted by Rev. Dr. Bryce, of Winnipeg, officiated at the services in the B. C. Funeral chapel and later at the graveside in Ross Bay cemetery. The honorary pallbearers were Messrs. J. H. Oldfield, P. E. McIntyre, George Lawrence, T. L. Peters, C. P. Wilson and Henry Cameron. The active bearers were Messrs. C. W. Bradshaw, J. G. Brown, William Robertson, Andrew Wright, H. A. Maclean and F. C. Paterson.

The hymns sung were "Rock of Ages" and "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Mr. J. G. Brown sang "Thy Lord Is Near; He Knows," as a solo. Dr. J. E. Watson presided at the organ.

In addition to the many Winnipeggers residing in Victoria who attended the funeral, the following Winnipeg people who happened to be in the city this week were in attendance: Messrs. John Galt, William Alloway, G. H. Balfour, Frank Sprado, Herbert Wilson, Tom Anderson, Henry Detchon, C. C. Hague, Tom Montgomery, Sam Greenway, Mrs. (Dr.) Bryce, Miss Cora Hind, Mrs. and Miss Perry.

Among those who sent flowers were: Manitoba Curling Association, Board of Managers Augustine Church, Winnipeg; St. Andrew's Society, Winnipeg; James Robertson & Sons, Winnipeg; The Library staff, Winnipeg; Victoria-Columbia Lodge, on behalf of sister lodge.

True Canadian

Dr. Bryce did not attempt to preach a sermon, but merely gave a brief talk touching some of the points in the history of the late J. P. Robertson which brought more forcibly to the minds of all present what a true Canadian he had been.

In opening his remarks Dr. Bryce called attention to the uniqueness of the occasion, they had, he said, gathered together to pay tribute to one who for forty years had been a resident of the West. J. P. Robertson was being laid to rest very, very far from his old home, but he was surrounded by friends, some of whom had known him from the time of his first coming to Western Canada. He spoke of his early newspaper career in Winnipeg, but dwelt most upon his work as librarian in the Provincial library, how he had honored the position and how universally kind and helpful he had been to the members of parliament and to all in fact who sought his aid. He had been a man with a wonderful grasp on knowledge of varied kinds and had always given of his knowledge freely and fully to any who sought.

He passed next to his knowledge of him as a member and official of Clan Stewart and of the St. Andrew's Society. J. P. Robertson was proud of his Scottish ancestry, proud of the place his country had taken in the world and of the honors they had won, but he was not a bigoted Scot and was always ready to acknowledge the good in others, and above all he was devoted to Canada and Canadian ideals.

Passing to his work in connection with curling, Dr. Bryce characterized it as one of the best things he had done. The great Bonspiel at Winnipeg, over which he had presided for so many years, was something more than sport, it was an institution which had done much very much, for the young men of Western Canada, furnishing them with a wholesome pastime which kept them out of mischief in their leisure hours, and it was this phase of the work that had so appealed to J. P. Robertson. The church was behind curling and had backed it up, and while Mr. Robertson had been a good and faithful churchman and a support to the minister under whom he served, having been clerk of the board of Augustine Church since its inception, he had done no better work in the church than he had done through his support of this wholesome sport.

This Is Aeolian-Vocalion Week at Fletcher Bros.

You cannot help but be impressed with the rare musical capabilities of the

Aeolian-Vocalion

Here, at last, is an instrument capable of reproducing music in its entirety. Hitherto only the broader, stronger elements in any tone could be recorded; but now with the introduction of the Aeolian-Vocalion and Aeolian-Vocalion Six-Minute Super Records the finer overtones are for the first time faithfully recorded and reproduced.

Due to its universal tone and the simplest and most scientific device of its kind—records of all kinds may be played on the Aeolian-Vocalion. Even the listener may shade and color the music to suit his taste—the marvelous Graduala with which every Aeolian-Vocalion is equipped makes this possible.

All this week we hold special Aeolian-Vocalion demonstrations. Come in—we cordially invite you.

PACKED HOUSE SAW BIG SWIMMING GALA

Exhibition by Lady Members of V.A.S.C. Was Much Appreciated—Relay Race Was Awarded to Y.M.C.A. Team.

The ladies' section of the Victoria Amateur Swimming Club held its annual gala at the Y. M. C. A. last night, when the scanty accommodation was as usual packed to overflowing with an enthusiastic crowd of spectators. The chief feature of the gala was the excellent demonstration given by the lady members of life-saving methods and the presentation to a number of the members of awards of merit and bronze medallions of the Royal Life Saving Society by the president, Mrs. Catterrall. Awards of merit were made to Mrs. Vye and Mrs. Norris and medallions were presented to Mrs. Irwin, Miss Bales and Mrs. Lea. Exhibitions of life saving methods were given by the following ladies: Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. Bales, Mrs. Lea, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Hibberson, Mrs. Bentley and Miss Edith Skelton, a very small member of the club, who succeeded in rescuing one of the ladies decidedly larger, a performance which was very heartily applauded.

Another very popular number on the programme was the exhibition of various strokes used in swimming by Miss Hosey, Mrs. Bales, Mrs. Lea, Mrs. Poole, Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Erb, Miss R. Robertson and Mr. J. McNeill.

There was some good exhibition diving by members of the club and the swimming dance by Mrs. Hibberson, the musical hoops and the final number, "Follow my leader," provided the fancy turns which delighted everybody.

The relay race for men's teams was rather a disappointment. All the swimmers were crowded into the very narrow space at the further end of the bath, which made it difficult for the judges to see that each relay man waited until his man touched before taking the water. The V. A. S. C. team came in first after leading all the way, the Y. M. C. A. coming in second and the Foundation third. The judges, however, disqualified the winners because one of their men started too soon, a fault which escaped notice in other cases.

The club handicap produced a good race, and was won by Miss Gracie Wellburn, the rest of the competitive events being confined to novices and boys and girls and producing some very close finishes.

Summary of Results

Club Handicap—1, Miss Gracie Wellburn; 2, Miss Rosie Robertson; 3, Miss Dorothy Melville.

J.B.A.A. REORGANIZES UNDER GOOD OMENS

A reorganization meeting of the James Bay Athletic Association was held last night, the president, Mr. J. J. Shallcross, in the chair. The chairman gave a short address, in which he gave a brief history of the club, its past achievements and future aims and objects. Others who also addressed the meeting were Mayor Porter, Mr. Henry Hall, M.P.P., Mr. C. T. Cross and Mr. W. H. P. Sweeney.

It is hoped, now that the war is over, that the association will once more take the leading place in the athletic activities of the city which it held before the war, and a committee was formed with the object of bringing the membership up to 500, those chosen to act on the committee being W. F. Andrews (chairman), C. Cowan (secretary), A. H. Shotbolt, M. Lord, Mat Scott, R. McInnes, W. Kennedy, R. Travis, H. Skuce, W. H. P. Sweeney, G. Watson, A. H. Cox and A. Hill.

A special committee was also formed, consisting of the President, the Mayor and Mr. C. T. Cross, to collect funds for the purpose of putting the club building into good shape.

RETURNING MEN WILL GET PASSES FOR GAMES

Baseball Club Manager Expects Soldiers to Welcome Baseball Back to City — Work-outs Have Started.

"No open gambling on games at the Royal Athletic Park," is the edict laid down by Manager Jim Brown. The manager further states that he is going to have an officer in uniform at every game to see that his decisions is adhered to. Realizing that the professional gamblers spell anything but success for baseball, Brown has made up his mind early in the season not to allow them to get in and spoil the dandy little ball club that he has organized to carry off the rag in the International Northwestern League.

For the Returned Men

Dune Hamilton, president of the Victoria club, and the manager have decided to invite every man as he returns to Victoria from overseas to the games. "Baseball was going strong before the war and some of the boys who left are among the greatest fans in the country," says Brown. "We know that they will welcome the return of the diamond game to the city, and as soon as they step off the boat we are going to make arrangements for them to be handed a pass to the next game."

Little time is left for the selection of a name for the club, it is pointed out, and any fan who wants to see the result of his or her brain storm perpetuated in the emblem sewed on the uniform of the Victoria nine has only a few days left to send in suggestions to Mr. Brown, addressed to the office which he has just taken, No. 204 Central Building. The telephone is also installed, No. 2921, although, the manager points out, there is a lot of work on hand with the fixing up of the ball park and getting his team in shape, so anything in the way of suggestions for the club's name should be in the for of a letter or post card. A season ticket is the prize for the sender of the name decided upon.

Motorists Cared for

Ball fans contemplating attending the Northwestern International baseball series in their machines will learn with pleasure that arrangements have been made so that they can drive right into the grounds, watch the game without leaving their comfortable seats in the car and drive home again. The machines will be admitted through the Cook Street entrance and a short fence has been placed, so that over enthusiastic fans will not turn on the gas, drive on to the field and tell the umpire what they think of his last decision.

"We hope to have the park in good shape for the opening game. There is plenty of room to park 50 cars and we are going to fix it so that 150 cars can be comfortably parked and the occupants will all get a perfect view of the game," states the manager.

A lot of work to the stands and players' quarters has to be done, but President Dunc Hamilton and Manager Jim Brown are so satisfied with the prospects of a ball season like that of 1911 that they are not hesitating to spend money to have the diamond and grounds in perfect shape for the first call of "play ball" in the race for the league pennant.

The players have already worked out a little to get into shape for the opening game and look good. They are a speedy bunch of youngsters, with just enough old hands in the game to hold them down when their enthusiasm runs away with their good baseball judgment.

GOLF FIGURES IN MATRIMONIAL DISPUTE

Golf figured in the divorce court in San Francisco recently as the principal grounds of a wife's complaint. The plaintiff averred that the husband deserted her every Sunday and refused to allow her to accompany him.

The defendant explained that he had no objection to his wife going along or to her playing golf every other day of the week except Sunday. In answer to the court's suggestion that the defendant might permit his wife to caddie for him, he declared emphatically:

"Impossible! Hitting a golf ball is a delicate matter. Imagine someone hollering 'Mutt!' at you just as you were poised to strike the ball. You would miss it without the slightest doubt, and you know, judge, that is just about what a man's wife would do."

FAMOUS TROTTER IS DEAD OF INFLUENZA

CALGARY, Alta., April 16.—Copious, the famous Calgary trotter, owned by Fred Johnston, of Calgary, is dead of influenza and complications at the age of ten years. In the passing of this great racehorse Canada has lost the finest trotter on the track today. Out of 41 starts Copious got 28 firsts, six seconds, five thirds and was twice out of the money. During the past five years the trotter never lost a race on the Western Canada circuit and held the track record of 2:13¼ in this city. Copious established a record of 2.11¼ for the mile on the North Yakima track in Washington in 1916. Copious raced on the Western Canada circuit for the past six years. Its record of never losing a race in five years in Calgary has never been equalled, and capturing 28 victories out of 41 races is the greatest record held by any trotter in the whole Dominion.

EVANS IS UNABLE TO DEFEND OPEN TITLE

CHICAGO, April 15.—Charles Evans, jr., national amateur, and open golf champion, today announced that he would be unable to defend his open title, won at Minneapolis three years ago, because the tournament had been set for Brae Burn Country Club, Boston, for the week preceding the Western amateur championship to be held at the Sunset Hill Club, St. Louis, June 16-21. MAKE PRESENTATION TO RETIRING OFFICER

W.A. of G.W.V.A. Last Night Held Farewell Social in Honor of President G. P. Heinekey—Gift of Clock.

Members of the Great War Veterans' Association were present in strong force last evening at the club rooms to take part in the farewell proceedings arranged by the Ladies' Auxiliary for Comrade G. P. Heinekey, president of the G.W.V.A., who is leaving the city to take up farming on Salt Spring Island. Despite the very general regret felt at the departure of the popular head of the veterans' organization, the members allowed the happier feelings to dominate the proceedings, and the occasion was made thoroughly informal and memorably pleasant for everyone participating.

The hall was unusually attractive, the decorating committee under the convenership of Mrs. Richdale having transformed the ordinarily business-like appearance of the room by dint of a lavish display of flowers and a less formal arrangement of the furniture. A programme of songs was followed by the serving of delicious refreshments under the direction of Mrs. Guest, and the final part of the evening was devoted to dancing, ladies of the Women's Auxiliary being present in large numbers and providing the necssary dancing partners for the G.W.V.A. members.

The most important part of the evening's proceedings, however, was the presentation by the Women's Auxiliary to Comrade G. P. Heinekey and Mrs. Heinekey of a handsome oak clock, suitably engraved, and accompanied by a beautifully illuminated address, the handiwork of Comrade Clarkson. This read as follows:

"To our esteemed comrades, Mr. and Mrs. G. Pat Heinekey. We, the officers and members of the Women's Auxiliary to the G.W.V.A. of Canada, Victoria Branch, do upon this occasion wish to express to you our sincere appreciation and respect of yourselves during your sojourn amongst us. We regret your departure from our immediate midst, and we do earnestly feel that we lose two earnest and sincere and esteemed comrades. We realize that our loss on this occasion is considerable, and little is there left that we can do other than to present you with this small token of respect and to wish you Godspeed. And may fortune attend you and your beloved wife in the years to come."

President Heinekey made a very happy little speech in thanking the ladies for their handsome gift and referred appreciatively to the devotion and sacrifice which the Women's Auxiliary had shown in its efforts to assist the parent branch of the G.W.V.A.

Comrade Axon, who presided as chairman over the proceedings, replied on behalf of the ladies, and Mrs. Tripp, secretary of the W.A. and convener of the committee on arrangements, added a few words expressive of the warm appreciation of the Auxiliary for the splendid work which the retiring president had done during his term of office. Mrs. Ball, president of the W.A., spoke along the same lines, and presented to Mrs. Heinekey a big sheaf of daffodils and narcissus.

The following took part in the excellent little programme which preceded and followed the presentation: Mrs. Gould, Comrade Ingledew, Miss K. Palmer, Miss Smith, Mrs. Richdale, Miss Rombold. Mr. R. Robertson made a very fine accompanist, and Mr. Y. Young furnished the music for the dancing as well as for the "community" sing, which was a very popular part of the entertainment.

Mesdames Ricketts, Palmer and Guest were the reception committee, and, together with the other ladies, made for the success of this most successful of all the social functions that have been held in the G.W.V.A. rooms.

REPUDIATE H.C.L. TALK OF MRS. PERRY

Claims Statements Made Before Council of Women Regarding Cost of Living Were Untrue and Harmful.

Addressing the Local Council of Women Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Perry, of Winnipeg, declared that the cost of living in Victoria was as high, if not higher than in any other part of Canada.

The retail section of the Board of Trade last night went on record as repudiating Mrs. Perry's statement and passed a resolution stating it to be the opinion of the meeting that she was not stating the facts.

"Mrs. Perry may be clever in some lines, but evidently she doesn't know what she is talking about when it comes down to the cost of living," asserted Mr. G. D. Christie.

Mr. Christie said he had recently returned from a trip through Eastern Canada, and he could state from experience that the cost of clothing, groceries and other general lines of goods was as low here as in any place he had visited, and was certainly lower than in some centres where he had priced things.

"Statements such as Mrs. Perry made are likely to be picked up eagerly by Easterners or even dwellers in other parts of the West who want to get some cheap advertising at the expense of Victoria," said Mr. Christie. "We should check the report before it has time to circulate, because it is absolutely untrue and might do the city considerable harm."

CONSUL-GENERAL FOR CHINA VISITS CITY

Mr. Yang Shu-wen, Chief Representative of Republic in Canada, Has Objection to Recent Legislation.

Objection to recent legislation passed by the Provincial Legislature affecting the interests of the Chinese of the Province is taken by Mr. Yang-Shu-wen, Chinese Consul-General for Canada, who arrived in the city yesterday and conferred with Attorney-General Farris. His visit to this Coast is one taken in the course of his consular duties as chief representative in Canada of the Chinese republic, but it has special significance owing to the fact that in view of recent legislative enactments by the Province as well as the agitation being carried on in British Columbia against Chinese employed in various industries, the status of the subjects of the Chinese republic is being affected.

The Consul-General made a formal call upon His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Sir Frank Barnard at noon yesterday, and in the afternoon was present at a meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners, at which he discussed the affairs of the local Chinese colony and in the course of which he voiced strong objections to the attitude of some members of the City Council, as indicated by newspaper reports of council sessions, an attitude which he held was unfair and unduly antagonistic to the Chinese who, as citizens of an Allied country, were being discriminated against, in his opinion.

Mr. Yang Shu-wen discussed with the commissioners the charges brought by Yuen Shen Sen to the attention of the civic authorities concerning the alleged prevalence of gambling in Chinatown. He asserted it to be his desire that the Chinese should obey the laws here in every respect, and he promised to investigate the charge that gambling is prevalent and to get into touch with the leading members of the local Chinese colony to the end that such a condition, if it prevailed, may be eliminated. But he resented the fact that the civic authorities should place credence in the charge made by Yuen Shen Sen, who, as alleged leader, is now under bonds on a charge of being a member of an illegal organization, the Chinese Nationalist Association.

Mayor Porter states that he has given Chief of Police Langley authority to employ outside men to comprise a raiding squad for action against the "gambling joints." He said that Chief Langley admits the futility of trying to carry out any operations in an unexpected way with policemen who were so familiar with the residentts of Chinatown, and that he resented the suggestion that the men should be disguised.

In view of the murder here last September of Tang Huo Lung, Chinese Minister, and the fear that has since existed in the minds of the Chinese Government officials that they might be molested, the Consul-General on his visit to Victoria is being accompanied by representatives of the Dominion police.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 15.—Judge W. W. McCredie, president of the Portland baseball club, was notified today in a telegram from J. H. Farrell, secretary of the National Baseball Commission, that Pitcher Guy Cooper, who had been claimed by Buffalo, of the International League, had been awarded to Portland. Cooper thereupon signed a Portland contract, and left tonight to join the team. Buffalo's claim to Cooper was based on the technicality that a release which was given him last year had been signed only by the manager and not by the president of the club.

But now he'll drink a bitter cup,
And see young "TURKEYS" slaughtered.

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE SPEAKS TO COMMONS

thought that, in such quarters, facts would be regarded as the slightest basis for criticism, but he was fully aware there was a great deal of impatience in the world, and he proposed to address himself to the real, sincere, honest, impatience which was felt in all lands.

The Premier paid tribute to George Nicoll Barnes, the Labor leader, and those associated with him in the plan for international arrangements for labor.

"Then," he added, "there is the great organisation, a great experiment, but an experiment upon which the whole peace of the world hangs—the Society of Nations.

Danger of Blunders

With almost every nation in the world engaged in considering these problems, the Premier said, "the delegates were justified in taking some time for their work, as a blunder might precipitate a universal war which might be either near or distant. After his reference at this point to what he characterized as the time-saving process of building up the League of Nations and his appeal for freedom for the conference to finish its labors without further parrying, he continued along this line to point to the dangers of not allowing the conferees the calm deliberation they required.

"It is full of perils—perils for this country and for all lands—perils for the people of the world," he declared. He begged that the men who were doing their best should be left in peace or else other men be sent to do the work. The delegates were dealing with many nations, most of them with problems of their own, each with a different point of view and it required all the tact, patience and skill that could be commanded to prevent the varying interests developing into conflicting interests. The Premier said he believed the conference had surmounted these difficulties, but it was not an easy task.

Questions that have never been heard of before the war had nearly produced a conflict between two of the Allied states, Mr. Lloyd George continued, and there were a number of such questions. But, he added, after all it was quarrels over small states which had made the great war. He spoke of the difficulties in the Balkans and added:

"One of the feautres of the present situation, owing to the breaking up of the Central Empires, is that Central Europe has been Balkanized into small states. Care must be taken lest causes of future unrest be created by the settlement made."

Russian Problem

The question of Russia was one of the most complex problems ever dealt with by any body of men, Mr. Lloyd George pointed out. One difficulty was that there was no Russia. "There is an organization controlling Central Russia, but there is nobody who can say it is even a de facto government for the whole of Russia," he declared. "Even if we could under the circumstances recognize the Bolshevik government we can not recoginze it as the de facto government in Russia. It is just like a volcano which is still in eruption, and the best we can do is to provide security for those dwelling on its remotest and most inaccessible slopes and arrest the flow of lava so that it shall not scorch other lands."

After saying that there was no question of recognizing the Russian Soviet Government, that such a proposition had never been discussed or even proposed, the Premier said it was a fundamental principle of British foreign policy never to interfere with the internal affairs of other countries. The government of Russia was a matter for the Russian people.

It was at this point that the Premier declared that it was not the duty of the British Government to commit the country to gigantic enterprises in order to improve Russian conditions, much as the Government deplored those conditions, pointing out that Russia was a country very easy of invasion but a very difficult one from which to withdraw.

"I would rather leave Russia Bolshevik until they see their way out of it, rather than see Great Britain landed in bankruptcy," explained the Premier, who added that this would be the surest road to the spread of Bolshevism to England. "My earnest conviction is that military intervention in Russia would be an act of the greatest stupidity," he declared.

Support of Anti-Bolsheviki

The Premier said he might be asked why he supported Admiral Kolchak and General Denikine. He would tell the House frankly, he said. When the treaty of Brest-Litovsk was signed, he explained, large parts of Russia had no hand in the shameful act, and were in revolt against the Government which signed it.

"They raised armies at our instigation, and largely at our expense," he added, "but that was absolutely sound military policy, because without those organizations the Germans could have secured all the resources, which would have enabled them to break the blockade.

"Bolshevism," continued the Premier, "had threatened to impress by force of arms its domination over those populations which have revolted against it, and it would have beeen an act thoroughly unworthy of any great land to say to these populations: 'We are exceedingly obliged to you; you have served our purpose and we need you no longer,' and have left them to the Bolshevik troops. It is our duty, since we asked them to take this step, to promise them support. We are not sending troops, because every Russian thought that if Russia were to be redeemed she must be redeemed by her own sons, and they asked that they be supplied with the necessary arms."

The Premner said he did not consider that this was a departure from the fundamental policy of Great Britain of not interfering in the internal affairs of any land. He continued:

"Our policy is to arrest the flood of the present forcible eruption of Bolshevism into Allied lands, and for that reason we are organizing all the forces in Allied countries bordering on Russian territory from the Black Sea to the Baltic. If the Bolsheviki attack any of our Allies it is our business to defend them.

"This is our policy, but we want peace in Russia. This world will not be passive as long as Russia is torn and rent by civil war.

"It is our policy to make peace among the warring factions not by recognizing parties but by inducing them to come together with a view to setting up some authority in Russia which would be acceptable to the whole Russian people and that the Allies could recognize as their government." He did not despair, he said, of a solution being found.

Bolshevism Waning

After declaring that reliable information showed that although the Bolshevik armed force was apparentlyy growing, "Bolshevism itself was gradually waning and breaking down before the relentless force of economic facts," the Premier said that when Bolshevism disappeared then would come the time to re-establish peace with Russia.

"We must have patience," he warned, "because we are dealing with a people misgoverned for centuries. There are unmistakable signs that Russia is emerging, and when she is once more sane and normal, the Allies should make peace with her."

In answering a question propounded by Mr. John R. Clynes, Labor leader, whether approaches for peace had come from Russia, the Premier said: "We have had no approaches of any sort or kind. None have been put before the conference. I have only heard reports that others have proposals which they assume come from authentic sources."

In his review during the earlier portion of his address of the difficulties confronting the peace conference from the many complex problems before it, the Premier pointed out that the boundaries of 14 countries had to be recast. This, he said, would give some idea of the purely territorial difficulties. But, he added, there were problems affecting the peace of the world and the destiny of the human race and if there were blunders made humanity would have to pay for them.

In giving a list of the problems the Premier concluded with the subject of indemnities. His mention of this brought cheers from the members of the House who had sent him the telegram urging that Germany be made to pay in full for the war. The Premier took up the challenge, saying in referring to this problem: "That is not an easy one, not even to be settled by telegram."

Fulfilling Pledges

Mr. Lloyd George denied that he was trying to escape the declarations he made during the general election campaign. The declaration regarding making Germany pay, he declared, had been concurred in by all the party leaders.

The Premier said he had not come to the House of Commons to ask release from any pledge he had given.

"I am here to say that every pledge we have given is incorporated in the demands put forward by the Allies," he asserted.

"We stand by them because we believe they are just. We want a peace that is just, not vindictive. We want a stern peace, because the occasion demands it, but it must be designed not to gratify vengeance but to vindicate justice. Every clause and every term in the conditions must be justified. Above all, we want to protect the future against a repetition of the horrors of this war."

The Premier said he was going back to Paris if the House wanted him to go. Whoever went, he declared, must have the full confidence of the Parliament and carry out his pledges to the utmost of his power and conviction.

Attacks Are Result of Disease

The Premier sharply criticised certain newspaper attacks that had been made in connection with the Peace Conference, saying:

"When this kind of disease is carried to the point of sowing dissension between great allies, whose unity is essential for the peace of the world, when an attempt is made to make France distrust Great Britain, France to hate America and America to dislike France and Italy, not even that kind of disease is justification for so black a crime against humanity.

Referring to the necessity of returning to paths of peace and of reducing armaments, the Premier said that the forces of the country which had kept Europe in arms for forty years were to be reduced to an army which would be only adequate to police her cities and protect her commerce. There were suggestions that there might be a war recrudescence in Germany. That was not a danger, as only with difficulty could Germany raise 80,000 men to preserve order. The danger, he said, was of the world going to pieces, adding:

"A real danger, the gaunt spectre of hunger, is stalking through the land."

Premier Lloyd George concluded by pleading to all "not to soil this triumph of right by indulging in the angry passions of mankind, but to consecrate the sacrifices of millions to the redemption of the human race from the scourge and agency of war."

GEN. HALLER'S TROOPS CROSSING GERMANY

LISSA, Posen, April 16.—General Baron von Hammerstein, a member of the German armistice commission, has telegraphed the people's council here, saying that the Entente powers had given assurance that General Haller's Polish troops would be used in merely maintaining order in former Russian territory vacated by the Germans. He said that the trains bearing the Polish troops would be accompanied by Entente officers, who would be responsible for the carrying out of the terms made between the Allies and the Germans.

General von Hammerstein gives warning that it is a patriotic necessity that no difficulty be placed in the way of transporting these troops; that there be no German demonstrations along the way, and that everything should be avoided which might lead to steps having most serious results.

PARIS, April 16.—The first contingent of General Haller's Polish troops started across Germany yesterday. They were accompanied by British, French, Italian and American officers, who will act as liaison officers between the German and Polish troops.

WORKERS IN FRANCE TO STRIKE ON MAY 1

PARIS, April 16.—If the decision of the six important unions in France is adhered to, May 1 will be observed by a general abstention from work. The delegates of these unions—the railroad workers, miners, transport workers, metal workers, sailors and dock workers—at a meeting yesterday decided to unite in efforts to obtain recognition of the demands of the workers, especially an eight-hour day and an increased scale of wages.

Delegates recognized that the demands of individual unions had been satisfied in many cases but decided that the members of the unions should not work on May Day, in order to show the power of the organized working class and the spirit of solidarity with the unions in a less favorable position.

Indian Agitator Confined

BOMBAY, April 15.—Gandhi, the Indian leader arrested here, has been released, but ordered to remain within the Bombay Presidency. All exemptions under the Indian Defence Act have been cancelled owing to the emergency which has arisen.

Stolen Belgian Machinery

BDUSSELS, April 15.—The Belgian Government, after the example of France, has created a special department in the Ministry of Economic Affairs, with offices at Wiesbaden, Germany, to deal with the question of the restitution and recovery of machinery stolen by the Germans. The commission estimates that only about 10 per cent of the machinery stolen from Belgium will be recovered.

PADEREWSKI—MASTER PIANIST AND NATION MAKER USES NUXATED IRON

To Obtain Renewed Energy, Power and Endurance

Dr. Kenneth K. MacAlpine, for 16 Years Adjunct Professor New York Post Graduate Medical School and Hospital, Says That In His Opinion Nuxated Iron is

The Most Valuable Tonic, Strength and Blood Builder Any Physician Can Prescribe.

Ignace Jan Paderewski the new Polish Premier who took Nuxated Iron when he was in a weak and run-down condition and needed something to build up strength and energy.

Ignace Jan Paderewski, one of the greatest musical geniuses of the age, at a time when his untiring work for Poland overtaxed his strength and impaired his health had recourse to Nuxated Iron to help rebuild his wasted forces and restore his old-time health and strength.

"With the tremendous strain imposed by over two years of almost ceaseless work in the cause of his fatherland, of which he is the foremost figure today, it is easily understood why Paderewski sought the sustaining tonic benefit of Nuxated Iron," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital. "Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, nervous, irritable, easily fatigued, but it utterly robs him of the virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are so necessary to success and power in every walk of life. Thousands of men and women are impairing their constitutions, laying themselves open to illness and literally losing their grip on health, simply because their blood is thinning out and possibly starving through lack of iron. Iron is absolutely essential to enable your blood to transform the food you eat into muscular tissue and brain. Without iron there is no strength, vitality and endurance to combat obstacles or withstand severe strains. To help make strong sturdy men of blood and iron there is nothing better than organic iron—Nuxated Iron." Mr. Paderewski says: "I am using Nuxated Iron very frequently and consider it as an excellent tonic."

A prominent New York Surgeon and Former Adjunct Professor of the New York Post Graduate Medical School and Hospital, Dr. Kenneth K. MacAlpine, says: "If people would only realize that iron is just as indispensable to the blood as is air to the lungs and be just as particular about keeping up a sufficient supply at all times, there would in my opinion be far less disease resulting from anæmic, weakened conditions.

"Nuxated Iron, by enriching the blood and creating new blood cells, strengthens the nerves, rebuilds the weakened tissues and helps to instill renewed energy into the whole system whether the patients be young or old. In my opinion Nuxated Iron is the most valuable tonic, strength and blood-builder any physician can prescribe."

If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary Nuxated Iron three times per day, after meals, for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained.

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron, which is recommended above, is not a secret remedy but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated and does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. [illegible]

Sold in this city by C. H. Bowes and all good druggists

Royal Victoria—Charles Ray in "String Beans," and Charlie Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms."

Dominion—Anita Stewart in "Virtuous Wives," a Christie comedy, "Don't Surprise Your Wife," and outing picture.

Variety—Mildred Harris (Mrs. Charlie Chaplin) in "Borrowed Clothes," and Houdini in "The Master Mystery."

PANTAGES THEATRE Tableaux dancing after the style of Mme. Pavlowa is featured by Mlle. Bianca and her ballet at the Pantages this week. Mlle. Bianca is a toe-dancer of great grace and skill, and in this she is greatly superior to any terpischorean turn that has been seen in Victoria in many a day. In three of her numbers she introduces this style of dancing. Her first toe-dancing is done in a Russian dance and later in a fanciful futuristic number she again pirouettes on her toes. In the closing number, an Egyptian scene, she is wonderfully garbed and the effect is lighted artistically. Mlle. Bianca is assisted by two excellent dancers who introduce specialties to allow her to make changes of wardrobe. Six excellent turns support Mlle. Bianca and one of the most popular attractions of the quintette is Mel Klee, a blackface comedian with a line of chatter all his own.

ROYAL VICTORIA Charlie Chaplin's sensational comedy success, "Shoulder Arms," which will be shown at the Royal Victoria again today in conjunction with the Paramount photodrama, "String Beans," starring Charles Ray, is a clever intermingling of laugh-provoking burlesque on trench life with deft touches of the drama and pathos of war.

Taking the ludicrous happenings in the life of the average doughboy as the embellishing action, the famous comedian has injected into the story of "Shoulder Arms" an occasional suggestion of the tragedy and grief of war in the devastated portions of Northern France. This makes an unusual combination in Chaplin comedy portrayal, and serves to heighten the effect of the humorous situations.

The combination of two such popular stars on the same programme and in comedy productions of outstanding merit makes the Royal Victoria's offering one of extreme interest.

DOMINION THEATRE "Virtuous Wives," from the book by Owen Johnson, will be presented by the Dominion Theatre again today, with Miss Anita Stewart making her return to the screen as a star in the role of Amy Forrester. Conway Tearle, who plays opposite Miss Stewwart as her husband, Andrew Forrester, concluded his motion picture work for the present season when production was finished on Miss Stewart's initial First National Exhibitors' Circuit vehicle, to play the leading male part in "Sixes and Sevens," one of the big Shubert attractions for the current New York theatrical season. A Christie comedy and a series of instructive outing scenes add interest to the current picture programme at the Dominion.

VARIETY THEATRE The very natural story depicted in "Borrowed Clothes," this week's popular feature at the Variety, finds an echo in many homes, and it is owing to the thorough, convincing manner in which the plot evolves that the picture advertises itself. Such incidents happen only too frequently in the humbler walks of life, and the clever characterisations that people the theme register every thought and emotion so accurately that the spectator feels he is visualizing life itself—not looking at it from the front. Mildred Harris fits perfectly the role of the troubled little working girl, Mary, whose ideals extend beyond the confines of the sordid, ill-smelling kitchen of her father's humble home. Orange blossoms bedeck her brow as a final reward, and she rises out of difficulties with the man of her choice.

COLUMBIA THEATRE May Allison is starred in the Metro wonder play, "Her Successful Adventure," which will be shown on the Columbia screen today and tomorrow as a holiday attraction. It is a feature in five parts, and gives the charming star a splendid opportunity to display her talents to advantage in a story of unusual charm. Charlie Chaplin in the comedy attraction, "Behind the Screen," will also be a feature of the week-end programme at the Columbia.

PRINCESS THEATRE Positively one of the very best productions, is the unanimous verdict of those who have witnessed the rehearsals of "What Happened to Jones," the screamingly funny farce which Mr. R. N. Hincks will produce at the Princess Theatre for an extended run commencing on Saturday evening. In the character role of "Jones" Mr. Hincks is assisted by a very strong company, including Mrs. D'Oyly Rochfort (nee Miss Phyllis Davis), who has won international renown as an accomplished and vivacious comedienne in light opera, and many other talented artistes who have on many occasions demonstrated their histrionic abilities at the increasingly popular local playhouse. The net proceeds will be donated to the funds of the widows and orphans of soldiers and sailors, and it is anticipated that "What Happened to Jones" will prove to be one of the most popular plays that has yet been produced at the Princess Theatre by the popular playwright.

ROMANO THEATRE The giant Redwoods that form the background of Triangle's production, "The Halfbreed," starring Douglas Fairbanks and Alma Rubens, which will be shown at the Romano for the balance of the week, offer a striking opportunity to the public for the study of natural history. The world offers no spectacle grander or more awe-inspiring than the redwood trees of Calaveras County, California. These trees are peculiar to California and are the property of the United States Government to be kept intact and inviolate from the woodman's axe. Attaining a height very often of three hundred or three hundred and fifty feet, these noble trees are said by scientists to be as old as five thousand years. A butt diameter of fifteen to twenty feet is common, and their clean, straight fluted trunks often rise two hundred feet below the lowest branches. The redwood grows only in a narrow strip on the Coast range from Southern Oregon (where there are not more than a thousand acres), nearly to the Golden Gate.

WILLIAM FAVERSHAM IN "THE SILVER KING"

Celebrated Star of Many Stage Productions Starred in Dominion Picture for Next Week

After holding the stage in England and this country for more than thirty years, "The Silver King," the famous melodrama of English life, written by Henry Arthur Jones and Henry Herman, has been picturized with William Faversham in the stellar role, and this great Paramount-Artcraft special picture will be shown at the Dominion next week.

"The Silver King" deals with the adventures of Wilfred Denver, an English country squire, who is ruined by a supposed friend in revenge for cutting him out in the affection of a beautiful girl whom Denver marries. Years later, Ware induces Denver to bet all he owned upon a Derby race, the result being that he is impoverished. When Denver hears Ware gloating over the success of his scheme he goes to the latter's house at night with the intention to of killing him, but Ware instead is slain by the leader of a band of robbers.

Denver is suspected of the crime, but he evades arrest by fleeing to this country and he amasses a fortune in a Western mining camp. His wife and friends, as well as the police, believe him to have been killed in a railway accident and when he reappears in England under an assumed name, exciting events ensue.

GOOD FRIDAY MUSIC IN CITY CHURCHES

"Last Judgment" to Be Given by Choir at Metropolitan Church — Maunder's Cantata at Congregational.

In connection with the rendering tomorrow evening at the Metropolitan Methodist Church of Spohr's "Last Judgment," it is interesting to recall that the composer of this great dramatic oratorio was the first musician ever to wield a baton in conducting a choir in England. The performance tomorrow night is to commence at 8.15, and will be conducted by Mr. G. A. Downard, the choirmaster, who was responsible for the rendering of this fine work by the Metropolitan Choir two years ago. There are a number of very fine choruses in the work, notably being "Destroyed Is Babylon," a fine piece of descriptive music; and the last chorus of all, "Great and Wonderful." The organist, Mr. Edward Parsons, carries a very important part in this work, having a big prelude at the opening of the work and also at the introduction of the second part, and as the composition is of the descriptive order, the accompaniment is big. The soloists are to be Mrs. G. A. Downard, Mrs. Edwin Parsons, Mrs. S. M. Morton, and Messrs. J. O. Dunford and S. H. Crook.

"Olivet to Calvary"

At the First Congregational Church Maunder's sacred cantata, "Olivet to Calvary," is to be given tomorrow night, and the church orchestra is to support the choir in the rendering of this beautiful work. Of especial interest is the announcement that the boy soprano, Master Jack Puntin, is to take some of the most important solos, other soloists to be as follows—Mr. George Guy, tenor; Mr. F. J. Mitchell, baritone. Mr. Frederick King will conduct and Miss Louise de W. Moore will be at the organ.

Among some of the loveliest of the choruses is the opening chorus, "When O'er the Steep of Olivet," also "Bow Down Thine Ear, O Lord," and "And While He Yet Spake."

Miss Moore will play, at the conclusion of Part 1, Rubinstein's "Romance."

ROUMANIAN FORCES ARE DRIVEN BACK

LONDON, April 15. — Russian Soviet troops, after heavy fighting, have compelled the Roumanians to begin a general retreat into Bessarabia from the line of Kamenets-Mohilev, along the Dniester in Podolia, a Russian wireless message says. Farther north, in Western Ukrainia, the message adds, the troops of General Petliura have been driven from the line of Kamenets-Proskurov-Shepietovee.

BUCHAREST, Monday, April 14.—A special mission sent by the Government of Western Ukrainia has been received by Premier Bratiano in connection with the future of the former Austrian crown land of Bukowina. The Premier declared he would adhere unreservedly to the decisions of the Allied powers and that he would take into consideration the wishes of the Ukrainians during the provisional administration of Bukowina by Roumania.

In the Springtime

It's just at this time of the year that we need something taken from Nature to restore the vital forces.

People get sick because they go away from Nature, and the only way to get well is to go back. Something grows out of the ground in the form of vegetation to cure almost every ill. Some of these vegetable growths are understood by man, and some are not. Animals, it would seem, know what to do when they are sick better than men and women. Observers have noted that a sick horse, dog or cat will stop eating food and seek out some vegetable growth in the field or yard, which, when found and eaten, often restores appetite and health. Haven't you seen these animals do this very thing yourself?

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found herbs and roots provided by Nature to overcome constipation, and of these he selected Mayapple leaves of Aloe, root of Jalap, and from them made little white sugar-coated pills, that he called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. You must understand that when your intestines are stopped up, poisons and decayed matter are imprisoned in our system and these are carried by the blood through your body. Thus does your head ache, you get dizzy, you can't sleep, your skin may break out, your appetite declines you get tired and despondent. As a matter of fact, you may get sick all over. Don't you see how useless all this suffering is? All that is often needed is a dose of castor oil, or something which is more pleasant, a few of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which he has placed in all drug stores for your convenience and health. Try them by all means. They are probably the very thing you need,—right now.

"J" UNIT CHAPTER HAS SPLENDID REPORTS

Various Activities Among Returned Soldiers Reviewed at Monthly Meeting—Ypres Dance.

Correspondence received at the monthly meeting of the "J" Unit Chapter on Tuesday evening included a letter from Mrs. David Miller, secretary of the Municipal Chapter, thanking the chapter for its contribution towards her life membership presented at the recent annual meeting. In reply to a letter from headquarters the chapter voted the allotted contribution of $1 towards the fund organized to present Mrs. Gooderham, the National Chapter president, with a jewelled badge on the occasion of her retirement from office. A communication from Miss Boultbee tendered thanks to the chapter for its donation of a wheel chair to the Esquimalt Military Hospital. The chapter's monthly contribution of $15 for extras for the patients in the local military hospitals was also gratefully acknowledged.

Mrs. Chrow read the Echoes report and appealed for money for the Soldiers' Graves Fund. In response the chapter decided to undertake the upkeep of another grave. The report of the visiting committee for the hospitals was then given by Mrs. Bruce Powley, two visits having been paid, when tobacco and chocolates were distributed. Mrs. Powley also reported on the chapter's room at the Next-of-Kin Memorial Home.

Through the generosity of two of the members, Miss K. Ellis and Miss E. Parsell, lights were bought for the writing desk and the only articles needed to complete the room are pictures and cushions.

Mrs. Foster reported that she had attended two funerals, those of Gnr. Wilkinson and Pte. Willett.

A report was heard on the very successful dance held on March 17 in the Comrades' rooms, the sum of $89.55 having been cleared. A standing vote of thanks to Mrs. Roberts was passed for her kindness in supplying the music on this occasion. The purchase of a leather chair for the massage room at Esquimalt was then discussed, and a committee, numbering Mrs. Hutchison, Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Butter, was appointed to purchase a chair.

It was decided to hold a rummage sale during the first week in May and Mrs. Chrow was given charge of the affair, being empowered to select her committee.

Miss Hodgson, of the Entertainment committee, reported having engaged the Comrades' rooms, Douglas St., for the chapter's Ypres Dance, to be held Easter Monday, April 21. The members were given tickets to sell for the event, there being only a limited number.

CHAPTER REPORTS ON MANY ACTIVITIES

Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I. O. D. E., Contributes Materially to Milk Fund for Children.

The Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening, April 10, at the Arcade Building. The Regent, Mrs. Ivel, was in the chair, and 24 members were present. One new members was received and six new names offered for membership.

The report of the Visiting Committee was very interesting. Mrs. Langford and Miss Mason will be assisted this month by Mrs. Brown.

The hope was expressed that the members would exert themselves to replenish the supply of magazines for hospital distribution.

The funds of the Chapter this month have made it possible to add to the money allowed Miss Grimmer for milk distribution amongst the children, also to make a small contribution toward the fund which is being collected by the Welcome Club with which to furnish fruit and cigarettes to home-coming soldiers.

The Chapter decided to assist the work of the Soldiers' Graves Committee, and voted the amount necessary to maintain one grave. The card party held on March 28 was reported to have been a success both financially and socially, and the members anticipate holding a tea shortly to augment their funds.

REVIEWS YEAR'S WORK IN MISSIONARY FIELD

B. C. Provincial Women's Organization at Annual Session Hear Gratifying Reports of Work Accomplished.

The fifth annual meeting of the British Columbia Provincial Women's Missionary Society of th ePresbyterian Church convened in First Presbyterian Church, Victoria. Mrs. Henry Pillar, Vancouver, president of the Vancouver society, presided.

The first vice-president, Mrs. A. Harold Gordon, of New Westminster, conducted the devotional exercises. Mrs. Inkster extended cordial greetings to the Provincial Board members and delegates and Mrs. Warden and Mrs. MacKinnon, representing the Kootenay, and Mrs. Robert Inglis, Kamloops, presbyterial. Mrs. Scouler, of Vancouver, replied on behalf of the visiting delegation.

Much Business Transacted

The recording secretary, Mrs. W. J. White, read the minutes of the last annual meeting, held in St. John's Church, Vancouver, and also gave the report of Executive Board meetings held during the year. Mrs. J. L. Campbell, Collingwood; Mrs. R. Inglis, Armstrong, and Mrs. J. C. McIntosh, Victoria, were appointed a committee on resolutions. Mrs. Thornton, Vancouver; Mrs. D. A. Smith, Mrs. J. Duncan, Victoria, and Mrs. Dura Sooke were appointed scrutineers.

Greetings were extended from the board at Toronto. When adjournment was made the Victoria auxiliaries entertained all the delegates to luncheon at the Y. W. C. A.

The treasurer, Miss McPherson, of New Westminster, presented a most satisfactory financial report. Receipts were: From Kamloops Presbyterial, $675.31; Kootenay Presbyterial, $363.85; Victoria Presbyterial, $1,132.26; Westminster Presbyterial, $4,303.02. The total donations were $6,474.44, which is an increase in British Columbia of $1,408.15 over last year.

The president, Mrs. Pillar, in her address gave a resume of the year's work and copies of it will be sent to each Presbyterial in the province. Mrs. J. L. Miller, of Ahousaht, gave a splendid paper on "Our Indians." It was decided that copies of this paper should also be placed in the exchange department.

Mrs. W. R. MacKay in her address outlined the work in South China. This was most specific and was delivered with force.

At the Thursday evening meeting Rev. A. E. Mitchell, moderator of the Synod of British Columbia, brought greetings to the convention and gave a splendid address. Miss Colthard also gave a very interesting talk on India.

Interesting Presentation

A very pleasing incident took place at this meeting, when Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. A. H. Gordon, of New Westminster, presented Mrs. Scouler with a book and a monetary gift from the Provincial Board members, as a slight token of the esteem and appreciation in which they hold her. Thirty years ago Mrs. Scouler organized the first Women's Auxiliary in British Columbia, when Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. A. H. Gordon were both present and became charter members. From that one auxiliary the work has grown into the present provincial society, numbering about 70 auxiliaries and 50 mission boards. Mrs. Scouler, taken completely by surprise, made a fitting reply.

Solos were rendered by Mr. Mitchell, Mrs. Jamieson, and a violin solo by Mr. Smith. Ladies of First Church served delicious refreshments and a pleasant social hour was spent.

Mrs. J. S. Gordon, the corresponding secretary, gave a splendid summary of the work accomplished during the year.

Election of Officers

Mrs. J. L. Campbell conducted the election of officers, which resulted as follows:

Honorary President, Mrs. Scouler, Vancouver.

NEW CADET CORPS TO BE HELPED BY DANCE

Social Function to Be Held on April 23, at the Fives Court, Work Point Barracks, by Esquimalt Chapter.

The new Esquimalt High School Cadet Corps will benefit from the proceeds of the dance to be given on the evening of April 23 in the Fives Court, Work Point Barracks, by the Esquimalt Chapter, I.O.D.E. The event is of great unique interest, as not since the outbreak of the war in August, 1914, has this once popular rendesvous been used for social events of this kind, and it is probably one of the last at the same place at which any large number of the military who took their share in the great happenings of the past four and a half years will be present.

There was a meeting on Tuesday evening of the I.O.D.E. Chapter which has the arrangements in hand, and the following committee were nominated to take charge of the general plans for the dance from this point forward: Mesdames Belson, Ritchie, Sisman, Wright, Warder, McTavish and Bessonette.

Dancing is to commence at 8:30, and will continue until 1 o'clock, and as Mr. Mylrea's excellent orchestra has been engaged to supply the music this very important feature of the entertainment is in excellent hands. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Esquimalt Chapter, I.O.D.E., or at the door on the evening of the dance, and it is hoped that everyone will bear the date in mind and make an effort to be present. The chapter has already done very commendable work in connection with the Cadets, which are their especial interest, and it is hoped that the proceeds from this undertaking will enable the ladies still further to assist the new corps.

CHAPTER TO DONATE PICTURES TO SCHOOL

Navy League Chapter Will Hang Pictures of Naval Subjects in Girls' Central.

The Regent, Mrs. David Doig, presided at the monthly meeting of the Navy League Chapter, I.O.D.E., at which it was decided to donate a set of pictures of naval subjects to the Girls' Central School, and a committee numbering the following ladies was appointed to select them: Mesdames Appleby, Smith, Moore, Whittier, Travis and Thomson. The Chapter's allotment of $1 was voted towards the jewelled badge of the Order to be presented to Mrs. Albert E. Gooderham, the president of the National Chapter, on her retirement in May. The chapter also voted $10 to the Welcome Club, the wish being expressed that the club would undertake the welcome of returned sailors as well as soldiers. The report of the delegate to the Federated Service Council was read, the Chapter deciding to join with the council and do its part towards making it a success.

The beautiful hand-crocheted tablecloth presented to the Chapter by Mrs. Bridges, of The Angela, to be raffled, was drawn, the winning number being No. 9, Mrs. Harvey, The Angela, holding the lucky ticket.

Mrs. Watson, convener of the raffle, reported that the splendid sum of $80.10 had been realised by the raffle, this sum being handed in to the hon. treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Smith, for the furtherance of the patriotic work of the Chapter.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS THREATEN TO STRIKE

Decision of Board of Trustees on Curtailment of Easter Holidays Resented by Student Body.

The decision reached by the School Board in regard to the Easter holidays bid fair to cause a clash between the board and the student body of the Victoria High School. Immediately after 3:15 yesterday afternoon the whole school assembled on the grounds to take steps to contest the action of the board. A delegation was appointed to confer with the board to try and change their attitude in the matter. A number of the school's orators made heated speeches in favor of the movement.

The School Board, it will be recalled, some time ago decided that so much time had been wasted because of the flu quarantine that the customary 10 days' holiday would be substituted by a holiday on Good Friday and the Monday following only.

The Victoria High School students' attitude may be in part aggravated by the announcement that other schools in the neighboring municipalities are to be granted the customary 10 days' holiday. One of the arguments is that the students cannot possibly be called to task for the influenza epidemic, and that, moreover, owing to the closing of the schools at that time, the pupils have had to work harder than usual with a view to making up for the time lost by the closing of the schools.

Threat of Railwaymen

MONTREAL, April 15.—"If the strike is not settled within a reasonable time, our brotherhoods are prepared to call out the 7,000 men enrolled under the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees in sympathy with the Canadian Express Company employees," said T. M. Schooley, general chairman of the organization of the Canadian Express employees last night. The strike is still on, with the two disputing sides holding firm.

Rhine Free to All Nations

A SWISS PROPOSAL

From The London Times' Paris Political Correspondent.

The question of the future regime that must exist in regard to the waterways and railways of Europe which are of international interest continues to be studied by its special commission. Considerable preparatory work has been finished, but most of the subjects have been sent back to the sub-commission for study. The majority of the areas are still under consideration, and no definite decisions have been reached.

The subject which is taking up most of the commission's time is the international aspect of the Rhine. This great artery may, both technically and politically, be divided into three portions—Rotterdam to Strasbourg, from there to Basel, and from Basel to Lake Constance. On the first portion the interests which must be reconciled are those of Holland, Belgium, France and Germany; then come the interests of the French, Alsace-Lorraine and Germany; and on the upper reaches at Basel of Switzerland and Italy.

The interests of the countries in the interior of Europe which depend upon the Rhine for their shipping communications have to be carefully considered. In this connection the improvement of Swiss communications are important. Swiss merchandise will, it is said, have special facilities of entry granted by the French Rhone as soon as this river is made navigable as far as Switzerland. In the meantime the port of Cette has been allotted almost entirely to Swiss transport, so that the country may have a quick arrival of her goods which are landed in the Bordeaux neighborhood. The Rhine, the greatest problem of Switzerland, is under study by the commission today.

Her position on the Rhine in the past has been made difficult because, although she is certainly a country through which the Rhine passes, she was not one of the signatories of the Rhine Convention of 1868, which was made between the German States, France and Holland only. Switzerland considers that her position should be changed, and that for the future she should be consulted, as she is certainly one of the stats riverains according to the Law of Nations, and especially in accordance with the rules of 1815 in the Treaty of Vienna. She asks for representation in the re-organized Rhine Commission which will be set up as a result of the future Treaty of Peace, without prejudice to her rights in the future.

An interesting point in her policy is that the Rhine, besides being free to all nations as far as Basel. In such circumstances British barges towed over from our shores would be entitled to continue carrying freight right up to Basel. Such a condition would radically cheapen the price of British goods destined for Switzerland, and as cheap imports is the motto of the Swiss delegates, the policy is comprehensible.

One grievance of the past with regard to the Rhine was that the Germans hindered traffic destined for the Helvetic Confederation by building pontoon and railway bridges across the river. This was in direct transgression of the Rhine Convention of 1868. Yearly the delivery of overseas goods coming up from Rotterdam was greatly reduced by the loss of time involved in breaking up the pontoon bridges for the passage of convoys, and especially so as the Germans were unobliging, sometimes taking two or three days for the operation. The Swiss want free navigation of the Rhine, and by that they mean a navigation not hampered through indifference to fellow-riparians.

Further, they desire that the bottom should be deepened so as to allow larger craft to reach Basel. The increase of traffic which would thereby be caused is considerable and of great importance, considering that transit by the Rhine instead of by railway saves three francs (3s. 6d.) a ton on merchandise. Before the war only barges of 1,300 metric tons could mount as far as Basel, these being hauled by tugs of 1,400 horse-power. The tonnage delivered at Basel from Rotterdam in the months of 1914 before the outbreak of war was 100,000 tons. This amount would have been 300,000 had there been a river bed universally 2 inches deeper or more, and a proper harbor at Basel.

The Swiss hope, therefore, that in order to improve the situation the Allied Commission will arrange that the portion of the Rhine between Strasbourg and Basel shall be regularized in the same way as the portion from Mannheim to Strasbourg, and that a minimum depth of two metres will be assured for 318 days in the year by means of a dredger service, so that barges as large as 2,500 metric tons, which formerly only got as far as Strasbourg, will be able to reach Basel.

The present situation on the Rhine is as follows: The lowest portion as far as Strasbourg, 701 kilometres (435⅓ miles), is regularized. The part from Strasbourg to Basel, 127 kilometres (79 miles), is navigable, though it has not been regularized. The stretch from Basel to Lake Constance, 168 kilometres (103 miles), will only be navigable after locks have been built. These, be it noted, will be made to give a great quantity of electrical power by the installation of power stations, the cost of the construction of the locks being thereby soon paid for. Concerning this latter part the Swiss and Italian authorities will probably come to an agreement outside the Conference, owing to the exclusive use of this waterway by these two countries.

It may be added that these two countries will probably soon also come to a private agreement in regard to making a waterway connection with a port on the Adriatic by Lake Maggiore and the rivers Ticino and Po. A special Italo-Swiss Commission, which was formed and had already held two meetings in Switzerland last year, has held a third in Paris three weeks ago.

ARRESTED AT CALGARY

J. H. King, Wanted By Victoria Police for Alleged Embezzlement, Will Be Brought Back

Charged with having embezzled money which he, as agent of the International Sales Company, of Vancouver, collected from Victoria patrons of that concern, John H. King, for whose whereabouts the local police have been searching for some time past, has been arrested at Calgary. Detective Sergt. O'Leary left last night for that city to bring the fugitive back here for trial.

King, whose home is in Vancouver, frequently visited Victoria as agent of the company and collected amounts on account of sales made by him. It is alleged he failed to make full returns of the collections of the company. Some time ago he disappeared, and a warrant was issued here for his arrest. His movements were traced to the Prairies and police there were notified to be on the look out for him. Yesterday word was received from Calgary that King had been arrested there.

TELLS OF STRAIN ON FIGHTING MAN

Returned Soldier Who Saw Four Years' Service Overseas Explains How Tanlac Has Relieved Trouble.

"I certainly want to meet the rest of the boys coming back from overseas, and who may be troubled like I was, so that I can tell them all about the good that Tanlac has done me," said Walter Gard, who lives at No. 408 Seventh Street, West, Calgary, to a Tanlac representative a few days ago. Mr. Gard is a returned veteran of the war and is still in the service.

"I suffered from shattered nerves from four years service in the great war," continued Mr. Gard. "The awful strain was too much for us boys and I happened to be one of the bad cases, so after going through the fighting at Ypres, Lens and the battles of the Somme, I was transferred to a hospital in England to be treated for shattered nerves. After the war was won and I returned home I seemed to get worse and complications set in. I began to suffer from stomach trouble and I lost my appetite entirely and my tongue stayed heavily coated for months and my breath was bad. I had nerve-racking headaches and I suffered so from insomnia that I couldn't get half enough sleep.

"I would get up in the morning feeling awful and I tried a lot of things to get some sort of relief but got no results and one day I got weighed and found out that I had lost seventeen and a half pounds. Then some people in the neighborhood and a prominent business man, who had taken Tanlac advised me to try it. You remember I told you in the store that I was delighted with the first bottle; well, I was more so with the second and I am on my third bottle and have gained in weight and have a good appetite. I sleep soundly now and get up in the morning feeling refreshed like I used to before my trouble began and the coating has also gone off my tongue. I am delighted with Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell. (Advt.)

LEAGUE SHOULD KEEP PEACE OF ALL WORLD

LONDON, April 16.—Lord Robert Cecil, the British authority on a League of Nations, in the House today, said he hoped the league would be a real league and not merely a league of the Allies to safeguard the future world peace. He added:

"We want not only to secure justice, or even security, for those who engaged in the war, but to provide means for a general pacification of the world and to secure co-operation between all nations."

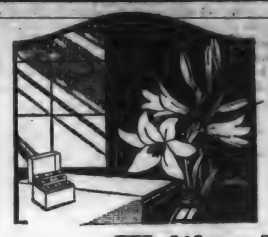

Lord Robert said it was impossible to exaggerate the economic situation in Europe. He wanted the indemnity question settled and the blockade lifted as soon as possible.

SPEECH OF PREMIER STIMULATES MARKET

Stock Quotations Advance on Exchange on Prospect of Conclusion of Peace — Heavy Offerings Near Close.

NEW YORK, April 16.—An obvious factor in the further advance of quoted values on the stock exchange today was the speech in the Commons of the British Premier, which confirmed the opinion prevalent in financial circles that negotiations were nearing a conclusion.

Little impression was made upon prices until the final hour, when heavy offerings of leaders, notably steels and shippings, caused an extremely irregular close.

Increasing conjecture respecting impending industrial dividend payments prompted caution by traders. Apart from U.S. Steel, which rose almost a point, to 100½, and fell back to 98¾, the bulk of the dealings once more was in shippings and oils.

Metals improved for a time, and tobacco, paper and textile issues were advanced one to three points under guidance of pools, but a majority of the more important stocks recorded net losses.

Sales amounted to 1,200,000 shares.

Sterling, francs and lire moved more advantageously to this market, but the London rate rallied. Call money ruled at 5¾, against yesterday's six-point rally.

Liberty 3½'s were strong, others sharing. The general bond market was irregular and featureless. Sales, $12,875,000. Old U.S. bonds unchanged on call.

such a number of Orientals have entered Canada. Looked at from a distance, the number scattered all over the Dominion from Victoria to Halifax does not look very large. But we realize that the climate of British Columbia is so favorable that most of the newcomers settle in our province instead of going further east."

Land Settlement Board

The Soldiers' Land Settlement Board, it is reported, is now well organized, and is making good progress under the chairmanship of Mr. W. J. Black, one of the best-informed agriculturists in Canda, who has held many responsible positions which peculiarly fit him for the work in hand. Among other offices which he has filled, Dr. Tolmie recalls, is that of principal of the Manitoba Agricultural College; Deputy Minister of Agriculture in the same province for a considerable period; and secretary of the Agricultural Commission appointed to investigate agricultural matters throughout Canada; he was commissioner of agricultural education before he accepted the chairmanship of this board. In addition to all these official positions Mr. Black is known as a practical farmer, a good organizer, and the best possible results are expected under his leadership.

Increased Pensions

The matter of increased pensions was thoroughly discussed at Ottawa, and legislation will probably go into effect shortly in this connection.

Dr. Tolmie read an excerpt from a letter from the Department of Militia and Defence in reply to a communication he had written on behalf of several members of the Great War Veterans' Association who had volunteered and been accepted for service before the Military Service Act came into force, but who felt they had been given an "unfair deal" by failing to benefit by the War Service Gratuity because they did not see service at the front in an actual theatre of war, were found unfit for further service, and given their discharge prior to November 11, 1918.

"The only reason for the Government not paying war service gratuity to those discharged prior to November 11 who did not see service at the front was that, having been discharged at that time, they were in a much better position to receive employment than the soldier who returned after that date," said the Minister in his letter. A reason cited for granting the gratuity to the soldier who was in England at the time of the armistice was that he was on his way to the front and was only prevented from getting there by the cessation of hostilities.

"Very considerable hardship is, no doubt, caused by not granting the gratuity to the soldier who was injured, say in an air raid in England, or who became ill through service and was therefore prevented from getting to the front," continued the letter from the Department of Militia and Defence.

The whole matter is still under consideration, however, and probably some further pronouncement will be forthcoming.

Atlantic to British Columbia

An interesting announcement made by Dr. Tolmie was in connection with the establishment of a line of steamers between the Atlantic and British Columbia ports in the early Summer. This service would be of incalculable value to the manufacturers here, who would be enabled thereby to procure raw materials from the East at something like reasonable rates. This line, it was understood, would be established under Government control.

The Government is at present considering a report recently brought in respecting the establishment of government telephone wires and telegraph lines throughout the Dominion.

Dollar Wheat

"Western farmers feel that they cannot hope to produce dollar wheat—as some of them expect to have to do before long—and pay the present prices for their requirements in the way of agricultural implements, etc.," noted Dr. Tolmie. In the matter of tariff revision it might be expected, however, that the farmers' wishes would be met to a certain extent by the Government when the budget was brought down.

"But of course it will be out of the question to expect any general revision on such short notice," added the speaker.

The farmers as a rule took a very reasonable view of the matter, he thought. In Saskatchewan particularly they were taking steps with a view to having the price of wheat fixed. Mr. McHarg, of Maple Creek, returned a short time ago from Great Britain, reporting that he was advised there by some of the best-informed men that if the price of wheat had not been fixed during the war that this commodity would have mounted to $4 or $5 per bushel. The idea is to fix the price of wheat against the speculator who buys the wheat from the farmer in the Autumn, holds it, and then raises the price to the consumer.

"It is very doubtful if the Government will make a move in the matter," commented Dr. Tolmie. He referred to the hundred million deficit as one of the reasons at the back of their inaction. Perhaps one of the most serious considerations in the matter of wheat was the lack of transportation. Hitherto by far the largest amount of wheat had been shipped through United States Atlantic ports. This year, however, it was expected that the States would have one of the largest crops in its history, in which event every available ship from American ports would be requisitioned to ship American wheat.

In many of the Prairie places he found seeding already being carried on under favorable conditions. But if the price of wheat were not fixed it was doubtful if the acreage would be as large as usual, as at the present rate it cost for seed alone anywhere from $4 to $6 per acre.

Markets Good

Markets for agricultural products in Europe are good, Dr. Tolmie maintains. Heavy horses of good type are very much in demand in Great Britain at prices ranging from $600 to $800 for first-class animals. There would be a large market in some of the smaller countries devastated by the war, where tens of thousands of horses would be taken provided satisfactory credits could be arranged. There would also be a stiff demand for female cattle in France and Belgium and other countries that were engaged in the war. These countries would not, Dr. Tolmie thought, consume much high-priced meat for a time, but would carry on with cereals until such time as they could produce cattle of their own.

"There is an excellent market for Canadian bacon in Great Britain," he reports. Thick, fat bacon has evidently fallen into disrepute. On the other hand, Holland and Denmark, countries that formerly supplied great quantities of pork to Great Britain, had been very much disorganized by the war. It was expected that when they resumed business that these countries would supply Germany rather than Great Britain.

Canada's Opportunity

"An excellent opportunity is afforded for Canada to take hold of the situation. If she is to secure this trade and hold it she must be careful that the products she sends over are standardized and of uniform high quality. It will be necessary for her to have a selling agency established in Great Britain to handle her products to the very best advantage," suggested Dr. Tolmie.

One of the things which Dr. Tolmie has been turning his energies to has been the directing of Government attention to the articles manufactured in Victoria. He has carried on a strong agitation for the purchase of goods from Victoria merchants when things are required here by the Government. The heavy Government deficit would mean the necessity of carrying on the country's business with the greatest possible economy this year. At the same time it was the intention to develop to the highest possible extent the export trade of the country with a view to helping matters.

Met Colonel Foster

In Ottawa Dr. Tolmie met Lieut.-Colonel W. W. Foster, one of the most popular of Victoria's soldiers, who is now on his way West and is expected to reach Victoria on Saturday afternoon. Dr. Tolmie also referred to Lieut.-Colonel Peck, V.C., M.P., who had a tremendously enthusiastic reception in the House, and is proving a very useful member, particularly so far as British Columbia is concerned and in whose interests he is particularly active.

QUEBEC POLITICIANS HELD ACCOUNTABLE

QUEBEC, April 16.—Testifying under oath at the trial of certain draft evaders of Bonaventure County before a courtmartial here yesterday, Philippe Furois made some sensational statements regarding the speeches delivered in that county by Hon. Charles Marcil and Hon. John Hall Kelly.

The case before the courtmartial was that of a draft evader named Leblanc, for whom his lawyer, Auguste Sircia, pleaded insanity.

Mr. Furois declared he believed that young men of Bonaventure County were driven to exasperation and even insanity by the speeches delivered by these two men and others in connection with the military service act.

He said these speakers depicted the situation in such a terrifying manner that at the time of a meeting held by Mr. Marcil at Paspebiac on November 16, 1917, two young men named Dela and Rosbil were taken violently insane and had to be removed to the asylum at Beauport, where one of them died since then.

Mr. Furois said further in his testimony that in spite of the campaign conducted the young men of Bonaventure County generally responded to the call, and it was only a few feeble-minded who were misled by the campaign.

He said the court should be indulgent with them and more severe with the real guilty parties, those who betrayed their confidence for interested purposes.

Mr. Furois was the Unionist candidate who opposed Hon. Mr. Marcil in the last Federal election.

SHANTUNG SEIZURE SHARPLY CONDEMNED

LONDON, April 16.—(Toronto Mail and Empire Special Cable).—The seizure of Shantung by the Japanese forces is the text of a vigorous editorial in The Daily News which points out that the future not only of the Far East but of the whole world is at stake.

"Today," says the newspapers, "Japan is practically master of Northern China, and potentially of much more. Unless the peace conference can right colossal wrongs, the Chinese will fall like ripe fruit into the hands of the Japanese, to be exploited, developed and militarized by that engaging people.

"Is this thing to happen? If it does, it needs no great effort of imagination to see what goal it leads to. It will mean the closing of the vast resources and inexhaustible markets of the Far East to the European and United States worlds.

"China belongs to the Chinese. Japan has no more right in Shantung than have we. She must go. If self-determination has any sanctity at all, and the peace conference has any authority at all, this matter must be settled with uncompromising resolution. China demands the evacuation of Shantung and abrogation of the 21 points (in China's treaty with Japan). This is China's minimum demand, and its concession is the capital duty of the conference. Failure here would mean failure in everything."

CANADA'S PRODUCTS GOING TO EUROPE

LONDON, April 16.—Reuter's).—Reuter's learns that a Roumanian steamship has left Liverpool for Montreal to load goods supplied by Canada to Roumania under the recently-signed agreement.

Lloyd Harris, chairman of the Canadian Trade Commission, leaves for Paris today, where he intends to investigate Belgian requirements with a view to ascertaining what Canada would be able to supply, and thus help in the work of restoration.

Canada will be represented at a large exhibition of British manufactures which is to be held at Athens this Autumn.

Reuter's learns in connection with Canadian trade developments in Europe that a Greek commercial mission is leaving Athens at an early date for Canada to ascertain the extent to which Canadian industries can supply Greek requirements and to arrange preliminaries for placing Greek orders in Canada.

Owen Sound's V.C. Hero

OWEN SOUND, Ont., April 15.—Sergt. T. Holmes, V.C., was given a rousing reception home here today upon his arrival from Toronto. He was presented with a "testimonial" in the form of a purse of $1,500. About a year and a half ago, Owen Sound's other Victoria Cross hero, Lieut.-Col. W. A. Bishop, the premier airman, was welcomed to his home in this city.

Why No Cameras Are Allowed in Shipyards

Foundation Company Official Says Curiosity of Workmen Causes Them to Stop and Watch Photographers—Time of Workers Worth Almost Fifty Dollars a Minute.

Mr. E. E. Jenkins, assistant coast manager of the Foundation Company, figured for a moment on his desk at his Point Hope office.

"Every minute wasted by the whole of our organization here costs us almost $50," he said quietly.

"It is a rule of the Foundation Company that photographers may not enter our yards with cameras. You say that you would use a small hand camera and would not keep men from their work. If a man walked through this yard with a camera in his hand the men in the yard would pause and stare and then would speak to each other, wondering among themselves what the photographer was going to take. That may seem a little thing. It costs the company nearly $50 a minute when the whole force idles. You can readily see why we do not want cameras in our yards."

Mr. Jenkins had presented astonishing and strong reasons why The Colonist should not be allowed to take photographs desired. And then he went on.

$10,000 for Two Pictures

The company had thought of taking an official photo of the men working in each of the yards. A staging would have to be erected for photographic reasons. Considering the time which the men would be idle, the officials calculated that the two photographs would cost a total of $10,000. The idea was given up.

Expensive Minutes

Observation has shown officials that each morning it takes men an average of 11 minutes to start work after the whistle blows. This means another $500 loss to the company every day. At night the workmen quit active work on an average about 10 minutes before the whistle goes in order to get their tools away, their coats on and ready for departure. This wasted another $500. The men are so anxious to get home that they rush for the gates in a body before the whistle has ceased to blow. At lunch time a loss of several minutes quitting and starting means another loss.

The above examples show that shipbuilding by a large organization such as the Foundation Company has become a matter of seconds.

SHEAR LEGS WILL LIFT FIFTY TONS

Big Derrick Being Erected at Ogden Point Assembly Plant to Place Engines and Boilers Into Hulls.

Big shear legs are being erected at the Foundation Company's Ogden Point Assembly Plant that will be capable of lifting anything up to 50 tons in weight. The derrick is located at the shore end of the pier, on which the plant is situated. The heaviest piece of machinery that the hoist will be called upon to lift will be 38 tons. The derrick that was put into place at the end of the pier by the Imperial Munitions Board would lift only up to 15 tons, which was quite insufficient for the heavy boilers and engines to be put into the Foundation Company's hulls.

The first pair of engines and boilers are expected to be at the Assembly Plant before the first of May.

COMPENSATION CASE BEFORE APPEAL COURT

Action of C.P.R. Against Compensation Board in Connection With Payment of Sophia Claims Now Being Argued.

VANCOUVER, April 16.—The action of the C.P.R. against the Workmen's Compensation Board in connection with payments to dependents of the Sophia victims has reached the second lap of the journey to the Privy Council, and is being argued in the Court of Appeals here. Mr. S. S. Taylor, K.C., is making the appeal on behalf of the Workmen's Compensation Board against the decision of Mr. Justice Clement that workmen's compensation did not apply when a vessel was sunk in foreign Points in Mr. Taylor's argument consist of citations from provincial laws that apply outside the province, such as fraudulent preference and service ex-juris, wherein the provincial laws deal necessarily with persons outside the province. He argues that the Workmen's Compensation Act is in the same class.

Mr. E. P. Davis, K.C., and Mr. J. E. McMullen are representing the C.P.R

In the Van Horne death duties appeal the court has reserved decision.

NOW EMPLOYING ABOUT 3,000 MEN

The Foundation Company is now employing about 3,000 men, the number being cut from 3,500, which is the largest number of workers the company will employ on its contract here. While men have been laid off at the shipyards from time to time, the number at the Ogden Point Assembly Plant has increased until about 350 are employed there. The rumors floating about to the effect that huge numbers of men have been laid off are untrue.

RUNNING MOTOR BETWEEN PLANTS

Intercourse between the Foundation Company's two shipyards and their Assembly Plant at Ogden Point has become so great that a special automobile is running between the railway bridge and the Dallas Road plant. In addition to this a special boy is employed to carry papers to and fro.

WILL NOT REACH PORT TODAY

CANADA MARU

Owing to a storm raging outside the O.S.K. steamer Canada Maru radiographed that she would not make port today as expected, but might make it tomorrow. She is bringing 2,000 tons of cargo, which includes about $2,000,000 worth of silk. Capt. Kelly, in charge of the Outer Docks, says, "It is evident why ships are spoken of as 'she.' They can't be depended upon."

USED PILEDRIVER TO LIFT REDFIR

Owner Could Not Secure Ways Upon Which to Repair Tug, So He Lifted Stern Out by Novel Means.

When Capt. C. T. Bruce, of the local tug Redfir, desired some time ago to effect some repairs to his craft, such as putting in a new shaft and making other changes, he was unable to find a marine railway available to take the boat out of water. The big skipper and owner of the tug didn't wait for a ways to clear for him but devised a means of his own to get at the propeller shaft. He got a piledriver at Hutchison's wharf and putting it at the stern and getting a line around the tug, he used the piledriver's power to hoist the vessel's propeller about a foot and a half out of water. The big piledriver scow was down to the water's level and held the boat securely for three weeks while repairs were being made. In this way Capt. Bruce saved a good sum of money, and he states that should the time come again when underwater repairs must be made he will use the same system. He had never seen it used before and claims that it saves much time and money. Repairs can be effected right at the wharf where the vessel lies. The bow was weighted down to aid in raising the stern.

A Novel Scheme

The tug Redfir has been in service about three months—that is the new Redfir. Capt. Bruce owned another boat by the same name, but lost it some time ago off Jordan River, where it sank. He wasted no time, but, procuring a piledriver, he hoisted out the engine and boiler in three days. Hope of salvaging the hull was given up and the deckhouse was torn off to get at the engines. If Capt. Bruce had not taken such prompt steps he would not have been able to get anything out of the sunken hull yet owing to the weather at Jordan River.

Loading the engines and boiler on a scow, Capt. Bruce brought them here and set them up on Hutchison's wharf. He then looked around for a hull to put them in, and eventually found one at New Westminster. He made a tug out of her that is stronger and bigger than the old boat, and he called it Redfir. In this craft for the last three months he has towed lumber up from Jordan River and done various other work. He leaves tomorrow for Jordan River to tow a boom of fir logs to Sidney. In the old Redfir Capt. Bruce went up to Prince Rupert three years ago with one of the big boats at that time under the Admiralty to help to put her in the floating drydock there.

Prefers Steam

Oil engines as they now are do not appeal to Capt. Bruce as a means of propelling a tug. He prefers steam with the old standby, the Scotch marine boiler, on board, because he says you know you are all right if everything is all right when you start. He made the venture that some day when oil engines have been improved they may serve the purpose of steam, but not yet.

Speaking of oil for fuel purposes, the captain told of one tug that was fitted with oil burners, but owing to the cost of fuel the owners had to sell her. The purchasers at once made the craft coal burning, but this fuel has now gone up considerably, so that the question of oil or coal is a toss-up.

Cleanse the little liver and bowels and they get well quickly

When your child suffers from a cold, don't wait; give the little stomach, liver and bowels a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

If your child coughs, snuffles and has caught cold or is feverish or has a sore throat, give a good dose of "California Syrup of Figs" to evacuate the bowels, no difference what other treatment is given.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless "fruit laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

CONSIDER BILL TO INCORPORATE GUILD

OTTAWA, April 16.—A bill to grant incorporation to the Canadian Merchant Service Guild, the first institution of the kind to be incorporated in Canada, was passed this morning by the Commons Committee on Banking and Commerce.

Mr. W. G. McQuarrie, member for New Westminster, in whose name the bill stood, explained that what was sought was a Dominion charter for an organization already in existence in British Columbia. The present organization, which has no legal status, he said, now has a membership of 500, including all the leading masters, mates and pilots in British Columbia employed on seagoing and inland water essels.

Mr. McQuarrie stated that the principle of the guild was the same governing bodies of this kind which have been in existence for many years in other parts of the Empire. It was rather a professional than a labor organization. The chief purpose of the proposed guild as described in the bill is to make provision for the insurance of its members, subject to requirements of the Insurance Act relating to fraternal benefit societies. The head office will be at Vancouver, and its affairs will be directed by a board of management. Provision is made in the bill for the organization of branches of the guild in other parts of Canada.

SIR AUCKLAND GEDDES PRAISES CANADIANS

LONDON, April 16.—Reuter's).—At a luncheon at the Savoy Hotel tendered by Lloyd Harris, chairman of the Canadian Trade Commission, and his colleagues, at which Sir George Perley was present, Sir Auckland Geddes, Minister of National Service, in proposing a toast to the returning Canadian divisions said that all knew how gallantly, nobly, and successfully the Canadian divisions played their part in the great campaign which ended the war against Germany. Their record was one of which any nation might be proud, if it had no other claim to pride.

Canada, said Sir Auckland, no longer found herself a subordinate partner in the British Empire, but one of the greatest world powers, one of the great nations which had been proved on the battlefields of Europe. (Cheers.) Sir Auckland paid special tribute to the record of the Canadian corps in the last 100 days and the marvelous manner in which they had smashed the Drocourt-Queant switch line, which was one of the most remarkable feats of the war. He recalled that one of the most dramatic moments of the war was when the Canadians entered Mons about November 11. He emphasized how Canada during the war had blossomed forth and the way her internal resources had stood the strain put upon them. In proposing the toast he coupled with it the names of General Burstall and Sir Edward Kemp.
